U.S. READY TO ACT AGAINST MINE STRIKERS

To Take First Step in Seeking Court Order Against Idleness.

By The United Press

WASHINGTON, July 8 — The government was reported ready today to take the first step toward requesting a court order to halt the three-day strike in the steel industry's "captive" soft coal mines.

Robert N. Denham, general counsel for the National Labor Relations Board, was expected to complete the preliminaries today by issuing an unfair labor complaint against John L. Lewis and his United Mine Workers.

The complaint was requested by 10 big steel producers whose soft coal mines were struck Tuesday in a dispute over Lewis' demands for a union shop contract. They charged it was illegal for Lewis to insist on the union shop without agreement to the rank-and-file preference election required by the Taft-Hartley act.

Cripples Steel Mills

The strike not only halted coal production for the country's biggest steel mills but caused sympathy tieups in some commercial mines that have accepted the new contract. Besides the 40,000 workers in the captive pits, some 15,000 miners in 42 commercial pits in the UMW's Pittsburgh region were idled by the dispute.

"We're advising these men to go to work" said William Hynes, president of the UMW district there, "but they're just lounging around waiting to see what happens."

Informed sources said they expected Denham to ask the federal district court today or tomorrow to order Lewis and the miners to halt the strike and stop insisting on the union shop clause without a labor board election.

The Taft-Hartley act requires a union to obtain approval of 51 per cent of the workers at a mine or plant before asking for a union shop. But the UMW can not qualify for such elections because Lewis refuses to file non-Communist affidavits required by the law.

Find Law Violated

Denham's aides completed an investigation of the steel industry's charges late yesterday and were said to have found that Lewis' demands violated the Taft-Hartley labor law. The act authorizes Denham, upon filing of a formal complaint, to seek a temporary court order against them.

If the no-strike order is granted, failure to obey would make Lewis and the union liable once again to contempt of court action. They already paid fines totaling $2,130,000 from contempt cases resulting from two previous no-strike injunction proceedings.

Operators of commercial bituminous mines signed the union shop agreement with Lewis before their old contract expired June 30. The steel industry was willing to pay the higher wages and other benefits granted by the other producers. But it decided to fight the union shop demand.

Union Tries To Get Men Back To Work

By The Associated Press

PITTSBURGH, July 8 — Approximately 78,000 soft coal miners remained idle today as United Mine Workers officials continued self described "missionary" efforts to get them back in the pits.

About 93,000 are "captive" miners—employed in mines operated by steel companies who have refused to sign a new contract with John L. Lewis. The remainder are employed in commercial mines.

As the government neared its decision on whether to try and secure a court order against the strike, there was a return-to-work movement in some commercial mines. It was prevalent mostly in West Virginia where only 7,000 of 105,000 commercial miners remained idle.

FEEL PINCH OF BLOCKADE

Drastic Cuts Made in Use of Gas and Electricity in Western Zone.

By The Associated Press

BERLIN, July 8—The Russians' economic strangulation of western Berlin today forced drastic new cuts in the use of electricity and gas.

Unemployment grew among the 2,000,000 Germans in the United-aided Americans, British and French sectors of the city. The western allies were working out emergency employment schemes to keep idle industrial workers off the streets. An unemployment assistance plan giving workers between 50 and 60 per cent of their normal wages was introduced.

Col. Frank L. Howley, the American commandant, announced that the western powers had decided to maintain the present food rations but to cut coal. He said:

Fly In Supplies

"To meet the emergency, to save 2,000,000 Berliners from starvation as well as economic and social destruction, the United States, British and French military governments are engaged in the greatest airlift in peacetime history. Thousands of tons of food, fuel and medicine are being flown from the west to Berlin.

Unfavorable weather slowed the allied airlift this morning. By 10 a. m. only 19 American transport planes had arrived at Tempelhof airfield.

American fliers heard complaints from two of their comrades of strange radio interference in the air corridor to Berlin.

There were unconfirmed reports that Soviet Marshall Vassily D. Sokolovsky had gone to Moscow for consultations, presumably regarding answer to the western allies' protest over the Russian blockade.

Howley, in a statement to the Berliners, asked the people to "bear in mind that freedom and democracy always have been purchased only by struggle and suffering." He said he believed they would "measure up to the role

Meyers To Receive 2nd Congressional Subpoena

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, July 8—Benjamin K. Meyers, the retired typewriter salesman sent to prison by this congressional quiz session, is due for another.

This one deals with charges of a multi-million-dollar "gouge" of the government through World War II freight bills.

Chairman Bender (R-Ohio) of a house expenditures subcommittee investigating the freight rate matter told a reporter today he will subpoena Meyers from his District of Columbia jail cell before the summer is over.

Meyers was sentenced to from 20 months to five years in prison last winter after his conviction on charges of inducing a former business associate to lie to senators inquiring into his handling of war contracts. The general became deputy purchasing officer for the Army Air Forces after a tour of duty at Patterson Field.

FIRST MARION CO. WHEAT DELIVERED

Flow of Harvest Starts at County Elevators.

The wheat harvest in Marion county started today when Leroy Demorest of east of Waldo brought the first load of the golden grain to the Waldo elevator, Mrs. Hope Mack, tabulator at the elevator, reported.

Appropriately enough, the first wheat to reach the elevator tested 59.8 quality—No. 1 wheat, and by the time the afternoon loads begin to arrive it will test a full No. 1 premium price wheat.

Demorest and other local farmers bringing their grain to market now will have the added advantage of a five-cent increase in the price which took effect late yesterday, bringing No. 2 wheat to $2.15 a bushel. Demorest's premium grade wheat will bring the added one cent a bushel price for No. 1 wheat, $2.16 a bushel.

Demorest had no figures available today on what his wheat yield per acre will be and will not know until he has finished combining about three days from now, but all indications point to a good yield.

Marion elevators reported no wheat arrivals as yet. One elevator spokesman said his firm had been running tests on local wheat and that samples tested so far had shown a high moisture content, some as high as 15 to 18 per cent, marking the wheat as "too tough" for harvest just now. Several elevator spokesmen concurred in this analysis but added the continuing hot sunshine and warm breezes now prevailing would radically alter moisture content of local wheat by the end of this week.

Marion elevators expected their first loads of wheat tomorrow and by Monday as one elevator spokesman put it, "they'll be lined up in the streets." A "good" yield was reported from all sections of the county, elevator operators said, and heavy shipments of wheat are expected here.

State Spokesman Recommends Merger of County's High Schools

Proposals Outlined at Meeting of Boards.

By WILLIAM B. STANBRO
Marion Star Staff Writer

Proposals for consolidation of Marion county high schools were told before a meeting of county school district boards of education last night at Harding High school.

More than 60 local school district board members, school executives, and Parent-Teacher association representatives heard A. D. St. Clair of Columbus, field agent for the state department of education, advocate a merger of Marion county districts in which the number of high schools in the county would be reduced to three or possibly one.

The meeting, arranged by the county board of education, was held in the west hall of Harding High building with D. T. Mills, county superintendent of schools, serving as chairman. Among those present were Kenneth A. Robinson, county representative to the state legislature and Dr. H. Shiritt, county health commissioner.

Mr. St. Clair told the group that similar meetings to study consolidation of school districts were being held in other counties in the state.

Reasons Given

He gave two principal reasons for these meetings. The first, he said, is that a lot of people feel "we are not doing what we think we are" in providing adequate public school education. He cited the fact that colleges are having to offer refresher courses to provide adequate preparation for advanced studies because students are not getting it in the high schools, both through lack of facilities and poor quality of teaching.

The second reason, he said, is the unwavering cost of education today. "We are reaching the point where we're not getting a dollar's worth of education for every dollar spent. People are beginning to question the cost of today's education," he declared.

He pointed to the Hunter-Cramer bill which boosted teachers' salaries as having passed in the state legislature only after a violent controversy which raged in the legislature for weeks before it went through.

The state legislature had before it during the last session a bill sponsored by Senator Morrison of Portage county that would have provided that no county comprise more than four school districts, Mr. St. Clair said. That bill passed in the senate but was defeated in the house in the dying moments of the session.

"Consolidation is coming," he declared. "Had Sen. Morrison's bill passed the setup would have been mandatory."

Considered In Other Counties

Moves to consolidate are being studied at the present time in numerous Ohio counties, Mr. St. Clair said. He named these counties specifically—Clark, Pickaway, Portage, Jefferson, Stark and Guernsey.

The superintendent in Crawford county has asked for a meeting with state officials to consider possibilities there, he said, pointing to the fact that the trend toward mergers was not confined to specific sections of the state.

"We are living differently now than we did 40 years ago. One-room schools served their purpose well when transportation facilities were limited. Good roads, shifting population centers, smaller families, all have changed the situation. Present small districts have served their purpose but now are as outmoded as the one room school," the field agent said.

"We must plan for the future, plan efficiently. Too many bond issues have been voted for additions to existing facilities that have become inadequate even before the debt has been retired," he continued.

Small District's Problem

"Operating expenses of the small district are too high to provide wanted facilities such as first rate school libraries, shop equipment. As a result there is loss of interest on the part of pupils who are disillusioned about the advantages of education because of poor facilities and bad teaching," he pointed out.

High schools to be operated to the best advantage today should number about 300 students to be large enough to sustain necessary courses permitting teachers to teach in the specialties in which they are trained, rather than a variety of subjects, Mr. St. Clair told his audience.

Marion County Situation

The local township district in Marion county had two standard high school, in the state until it finally outgrowth this year, he said in analyzing the Marion county situation.

"The Tully district high school at Waldo has an enrollment of only 33 pupils and must be a

Palestine War on Again As Truce Draws Near End

By The Associated Press

CAIRO, July 8 — Israel's high command announced today that Egyptian forces opened an offensive south of Tel Aviv in the waning hours of the Palestine truce.

Count Folke Bernadotte, United Nations mediator, said at Rhodes that the Arabs rejected his plea to extend the four-week truce, although the Jews had accepted the proposal.

Renewed Arab-Jewish war on a full scale was expected tomorrow. The Jewish high command said the Egyptians already were throwing air, artillery and armored car attacks at Beer Tuvia, 22 miles south of the Jewish capital.

"The war is on," a Jewish spokesman said.

Bernadotte announced that the Arabs apparently turned down even a three-day extension, but "all necessary steps are being taken immediately for safe evacuation of United Nations observers, personnel and their equipment."

Staff of Observers

The United States, France and Belgium each have 21 military observers in the Holy Land, supervised by a small staff of Swedish officers. In addition the United Nations recently sent about 50 armed guards to aid in the truce job, along with communications and staff personnel.

The U. S. Navy carrier Palau arrived at Haifa to evacuate the UN staff. The U. S. naval tankship Marquette is in Haifa bay to remove personnel and equipment. Three American destroyers, the Putnam, the Henley and the Owen, are standing by at Haifa, subject to UN orders.

Bernadotte asked both Jews and Arabs to withhold military action in Haifa and Beirut, Lebanon, until the end of the UN evacuation operations.

The UN secretariat and guards, mostly Americans, will leave Haifa by air for Beirut today and the American observers will fly home from Beirut on American planes.

Belgian, French Leave

Belgian and French observers are leaving their Palestine posts today and tomorrow.

A small party of UN field observers may remain in Jerusalem, pending possible developments in the Bernadotte proposal to demilitarize the Holy City, Haifa dispatches said.

The four-week Palestine truce has less than 24 hours to go. Both sides were known to be preparing to resume fighting.

There was no indication in the Tel Aviv announcement whether the alleged attack was on a large scale or was another of the periodic clashes such as have marked the cease-fire.

The Israel communique said the Egyptians were attacking in the directions of Isdud, where an Egyptian spearhead was trapped temporarily before the armistice.

Tel Aviv dispatches said air raid sirens sounded in the Jewish capital shortly after noon, but there were no immediate signs of hostile planes.

Observers Ordered Out

Reports from Amman, Trans-Jordan capital, said two UN truce observers based there had received orders to leave immediately.

In Tel Aviv, the head of the UN truce team, Col. W. B. McCoy of Oxford, Ga., said he was informed by the Israel liaison officer that "the war is on."

The officer told him heavily fortified Beer Tuvia is being attacked by planes, armored cars and artillery.

UN truce observers were hastily evacuated from Tel Aviv. All UN military personnel left by road convoy for Haifa, there presumably to board American destroyers assigned to the United Nations. Civilian employes, headed by John Reedman, have been ordered to remain in Tel Aviv.

In Cairo, Abdel Rahman Azzam Pasha, secretary general of the Seven Nation Arab League, announced that the UN mediator, Counte Folke Bernadotte, has been told officially the Arab countries have "no intention" of extending the truce. He said the security council's 11th hour appeal for an extension had not been received officially by the league from Lake Success.

There has been no official announcement of the Jewish position on the truce extension.

Full Blast Tomorrow

Israeli government sources said they expected the real full-scale war to break out tomorrow.

A dispatch from Jerusalem told of persistent reports among officers of Trans-Jordan's Arab legion that the Jews had heavily increased their armaments in the Holy City. At the beginning of the truce the Arabs held the old walled city of Jerusalem and the Jews held most of the modern city, although it was cut off from Tel Aviv by Arab forces.

Legion officers in Jerusalem said they expected the Jews to launch a heavy mortar attack on the old city, scene of many holy shrines of three great religions.

CIO Demands Democrats Write Roosevelt Platform

By The Associated Press

PHILADELPHIA, July 8—The CIO today made a hard-pounding demand that the Democrats tie their 1948 campaign to a "Roosevelt Platform."

And that was the opening firecracker of a day that was expected to get oh so noisy with party arguments over civil rights.

The civil rights plank rushed to the forefront as a platform drafting committee of 18 Democrat leaders, preparing for next week's Democratic convention, moved into its second day of public hearings.

Carey Is Insistent

CIO Secretary James B. Carey, a little man with a mop of curly hair and a deep determined voice, urged in a statement prepared for delivery that the Democrats pledge:

1. Federal laws against lynching, poll taxes, discrimination in employment, and racial separation in the armed services.

2. Repeal of the Taft-Hartley labor law.

3. Public housing, price controls; health insurance, greater social security, higher minimum wages, federal aid to education, an excessive profits tax, and other measures.

Later in the day half a dozen other witnesses, including some Negro leaders, were to argue for a strong civil rights plank, including the lynching, poll tax, and fair employment laws advocated by President Truman.

Southerners on the committee, one example Alabama's ex-governor Chauncey Sparks and Texas ex-governor Dan Moody, were all set to cross-examine these witnesses.

CIO Has Influence

The CIO (Congress of Industrial Organizations) has not been without influence in Democratic councils during the last dozen years.

Today it threw its challenge of a "Roosevelt platform" into a Roosevelt-less party ripped by dissension.

There was probably no chance that the party with its clashing factions would agree with every phase of the CIO program.

But there were signs that some outspoken party leaders were eager to make a fighting campaign on a social-conscious platform.

Yesterday, the platform drafting committee gave Morris Sayre, president of the National Association of Manufacturers (NAM), a rough afternoon indeed.

Repeats Program

Sayre presented the identical program he had offered the Republican platform committee last month. The Republicans did not ask him a single question. Yesterday the Democrats bounced questions and criticisms at him for nearly two hours.

Senator Theodore Green of Rhode Island told Sayre: "You were hoping, I suppose, that the Democrats would adopt your program and lose the campaign in consequence."

TRUMAN AIDES COUNT GEN. EISENHOWER OUT

By The Associated Press

PHILADELPHIA, July 8 — President Truman's aides counted Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower definitely and finally out of the Democratic presidential race today.

They did this, a Truman spokesman told a reporter, after receiving private assurances from two close personal friends of the general.

The word they took to the White House was that Eisenhower himself believes he left no loophole for a draft movement in his statement that he couldn't take any party's nomination.

The wartime European commander gave some public support to this view when he told a crowd of 5,000 gathered before his New York City home last night to chant "We want Ike" that "All I have to say I said in a letter the other night."

This was the statement in which the Columbia university president declared he "could not accept nomination for any public office."

Democratic Chairman J. Howard McGrath put the "definite and final" label on Eisenhower's draft renunciation at a news conference here yesterday, adding:

"I couldn't conceive that the Democratic convention would disregard such poor judgment as not to take General Eisenhower at his word."

By The Associated Press

OIL WORKERS STRIKE TODAY

Standard CIO Employes in Cleveland Walk Out in Wage Dispute.

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, July 8 — Some 1,100 members of the CIO Oil Workers Union quit today at four branches of the Standard Oil Co. in a wage dispute.

The walkout, called last night for 7 a. m. today, will be extended to two additional units later today, union officials said.

Affected by the initial stoppage were the company's No. 1 and 2 refineries, Canfield Oil Plant No. 1 and Lithograph can factory, all in Cleveland.

The Toledo refinery and the eastern division of Sohio Pipeline Co., connecting Hagerstown, Ind., Lima, O., and Toledo will be struck this afternoon, union officials said.

No Picketing

Hundreds of workers milled around the Cleveland plants, but there was no picketing. Truck drivers and building craftsmen were allowed to enter.

Fuel oil distribution for diesel locomotives of the New York Central railroad and area plants of Republic Steel Corp. and Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp. was slashed by the walkout, William Flower, international union representative said.

A statement that "Ohio motorists need have no immediate worry over their supply of Sohio gasoline," was delivered by E. B. McConnell, Sohio vice president in charge of manufacturing. He added that adequate supplies were on hand to meet demands for some time.

Flower contended that Sohio refused retroactive wage increase

Sides Chosen for Annual All-Star Baseball Game

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, July 8—The sides were chosen for the major leagues' 19th all-star game at St. Louis Tuesday with the completion today of the domineering American League's full squad.

The hot-shots from the junior circuit, 2-1 winners at Wrigley Field in Chicago last year, will be slugging for their eleventh decision over the National Leaguers.

Manager Bucky Harris rounded out his 25-player American roster by nominating eight pitchers and nine replacements for the starters named at the other eight positions in a nationwide poll of fans.

The National League's squad was marshalled to full-battle size yesterday by Manager Leo Durocher, who elected only six pitchers—two under par for the all-star course. Brooklyn's Lippy took up the slack by picking four third baseman instead of the customary pair.

Pilot Harris' own New York Yankees grabbed the most American all-star berths, six, including pitchers Vic Raschi and Joe Page, the perennial reliefer.

Feller, Lemon To Pitch

The six-mates' Cleveland Indians placed five solid candidates, among them the hurling "Bobby" twins, Feller and Lemon.

Boston and Detroit landed four players each. Washington and Philadelphia each had two nominees. Chicago and St. Louis contributed one apiece for all-star representation by all eight clubs.

Harris picked his own Yankee coaches, Charles Dressen and John Corriden, as all-star aides.

The American pitching staff is neat but not gaudy. Lemon and Lefty Hal Newhouser of Detroit are the league's winningest hurlers, each with a dozen verdicts. The converted Tribe utility man, Newhouser and possibly Raschi appear to be Harris' strongest mound punch.

Feller, who won't strike fear into the hearts of National league swingers off his current struggling season, Walt Masterson of Washington, Joe Coleman of Philadelphia, Jim Hearn of Chicago, all right-handers, and southpaw Page, round out the corps.

Four Seasoned Vets

This eight-mate will be pitted against the National's eight-some: Ralph Branca, Brooklyn; Johnny Sain, Boston; Warren Spahn, Boston; Harry Brecheen, St. Louis; Howie Pollet, St. Louis; Ewell Blackwell, Cincinnati; Preacher Roe, Brooklyn; and Jim Hearn, New York.

[illegible] she replied, "bring them wives perfume."

THE FARM WAS STARTED [illegible] a year ago but now [illegible] has more than fifty kinds of plants. Vines crawl over the roof and the wife has a haunted feeling that some night a [illegible] from a distant runway will [illegible] and snuggle down in her room and strangle her in her sleep.

"We had a lot of trouble with bugs," grunted my friend. "I think they're all passing airplanes. They certainly don't [illegible] use the elevator."

Your Good Health

By DR. IRVING S. CUTTER

Tropical Disease

THERE are many diseases that are rarely, if ever, talked about in mixed company. Yet they are of such importance to the health of [illegible] people that they should be discussed openly and frankly.

Today we know that is far from true and yet few people would [illegible] current estimates that almost 10 per cent of the people in the United States harbor the parasite in the intestinal tract.

There are two reasons for this unawareness of what constitutes a very real threat to our national health: first, that in many individuals the parasite may be present without causing symptoms; second, that even when symptoms are present they may be mistakenly ascribed to other disorders.

The disease may be transmitted from one person to another by [illegible] water or food contaminated with the cysts of the parasite. These [illegible] pass from the intestine [illegible] and, in the tissues themselves or in the [illegible] of the large intestine, [illegible] small abscesses which may enlarge to form [illegible].

The symptoms [illegible] to the infection [illegible]. In some cases, as I have mentioned, there may be no symptoms at all. In other instances there may be mild irritation of the intestine with a feeling of [illegible] and sickness.

In other cases the symptoms are [illegible] those of appendicitis [illegible] of the stomach [illegible] otherwise. In still other cases there may be severe [illegible] with gripping pain and bloody [illegible] in the bowel movements.

Since the endamoeba may get into the liver and form abscesses, symptoms may occur suggesting the presence of abscess with fever and [illegible] tenderness in the liver area. Now and then the parasites may be carried to the brain, kidneys, or skin.

To make a definite diagnosis of amebic dysentery the parasites or their cysts must be found in the bowel movements. In making the examination it is important to have a fresh warm stool specimen.

Sometimes the proctoscope which is [illegible] with a light may be passed into the lower bowel and some material from the edge of the ulcers of the bowel removed and examined for the presence of the amoebas.

Once the diagnosis is made the patient should be put to bed and treatment started. Fortunately various iodine and arsenic containing preparations are employed in the treatment with remarkable results.

In cases in which liver abscesses are present emetine is employed. Emetine should not be used in patients with heart disease and when the emetine is used the patient must be confined to bed.

Persons who have symptoms like those of amebic dysentery should make a careful study made to determine whether or not this disorder is present. This is of great importance not only to their own health but to that of others to whom they may unwittingly pass the disease.

Questions and Answers

M. N. H.: My feet, hands and nose are always cold. What does this indicate?

Answer: Such symptoms may be due to a disturbance of the circulation. They may also result from a thyroid deficiency. A thorough study to determine the cause would be necessary before treatment could be prescribed.

HOUSE DRAWS BLANKS IN CIO RED HUNT

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, July 8—A house subcommittee has drawn three straight blanks in quizzing New York City labor leaders to find out if they have Communist affiliations.

In a tumultuous opening session yesterday, three union leaders flatly refused to answer when the house investigators asked if they were Communists.

One of them, Arthur Osman president of local 65 of the CIO Department Store Union, told committee members

"We are going to take people like you and run you out of town."

His threat was answered by a burst of applause from spectators that packed the 13th-floor hearing room in the federal courthouse.

Rep Fred Hartley (R-NJ) chairman of the house labor and education committee of which the investigating group is a part said it would be decided later whether contempt charges will be pressed against the three who refused to say if they are Communists

Besides Osman those questioned were David Livingston vice president of the CIO local and Esther Letz a unit director

They challenged the right of the subcommittee to ask about their political beliefs and declared that answering the question would tend to incriminate them

They cited the fifth amendment to the Constitution as the basis for their refusal

"In 20 years" said Hartley "I have never attended a congressional hearing at which witnesses have been so evasive where the evasion was more deliberately and cleverly planned to withhold information

FERGUSON WINS ROW OVER SWITCHBOARD

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS O July 8 State Auditor Joseph T Ferguson claimed victory today in the battle of the switchboard

The Democrat in the state house announced that a direct telephone line between Ohio Republican headquarters, 17 North High street, and the state office building switchboard has been disconnected

Ferguson said he learned the line was taken out about a month ago on orders of State GOP Chairman Fred Johnson

No comment said Johnson when asked about caused disconnection of the line It had been in since February of 1947

Auditor Ferguson said he was releasing immediately $33 712 to Ohio Bell Telephone Co for service at the office building switchboard since April 1 He stopped payments on all office building extensions when he first learned about the direct line, and insisted he would not pay the bills until the line was disconnected

Johnson claimed at that time that the Republican party had $2 50 a month for use of the line and that it cost the state nothing Ohio Bell officials disagreed with Johnson Furthermore said the telephone company anyone who wants to can have a direct line to the office building switchboard The switchboard Ohio Bell said is owned by the telephone company and is operated by telephone company employees

Retired Railroad Employes To Get Pension Increase

About 216,000 retired railroad employes, including several hundred in Marion county and vicinity, will have their annuities or pensions increased as a result of recent legislation, signed by President Truman on June 23 which amended both the railroad retirement and railroad unemployment insurance acts. Details are given in a report issued from the Columbus office of the railroad retirement board.

With a few minor exceptions, the increases will be a flat 20 per cent, the report states. Nearly seven million other persons who have worked in the railroad industry will also benefit by the increase when they become eligible to retire.

Higher payments will go to 204,500 employe annuitants and 11,500 former carrier pensioners. The average annuity will rise from $70 to $84 a month and the average pension from $58 to $70. The maximum retirement benefit will now be $144 a month. The retirement taxes paid by both employes and employers will remain the same.

In addition to increasing virtually all retirement benefits the new law raises by 20 per cent the monthly payments which are made to about 4,300 widows of deceased annuitants who had elected to take a reduction in their own annuities in order to assure a monthly income for their widows. The survivor annuities which became payable under the 1946 amendments, however, are not changed.

Beneficiaries need not make application for the increase in their benefits and the first checks to reflect the new amounts will be those payable on the first of August. However some checks may be delayed a few days, therefore, those who do not receive their August payments on time are asked to wait at least 10 days before writing to the railroad retirement board.

Employes' Guarantee

The new law also guarantees each railroad worker or his survivors, will receive an amount at least equal to the retirement taxes he has paid, plus a small amount for interest, and restores the right of an employe to designate a beneficiary. This change answers the objections raised by those who believed that under the old law they, or their families, might not have received full value for the taxes paid.

The 'guarantee' provision permits, under certain conditions, the payment of a lump sum to four per cent of an employe's taxable railroad earnings from 1937 through 1946 and seven per cent after 1946 minus any previous benefits which may have been paid either to him or to his survivors. It will be paid, however, only when no immediate monthly benefits, or no future monthly benefits, are payable, with one exception. The exception is that a surviving widow or parent of the employe who might be entitled to monthly benefits at age 65 may elect to waive all rights to those monthly benefits, and thereby make the "guarantee" lump-sum payment available immediately.

Payment Provisions

Even though an employe is again permitted to designate a beneficiary, it will seldom be necessary for him to do so. The law provides that in the absence of a designation, the "guarantee" lump-sum benefit which may be due shall be paid to the widow (or widower), children (or persons entitled to share with children under state laws), parents, or estate, of the employe, in that order. Therefore, unless an employe wishes to name some one other than the persons already mentioned in the law, or in a different order, a designation will serve no purpose. Any designation which might have been made previously is null and void. Even though some one other than surviving widow (or parent) is designated as the beneficiary, the "guarantee" lump-sum cannot be paid unless the widow (or parent) waives all rights to monthly benefits at age 65. Should the widow (or parent) remarry, or, for any other reason lose rights to future benefits the lump-sum payment may be made immediately.

SON OF GALION PASTOR WED TO DETROIT GIRL

Special to The Star

GALION—Of interest here is the marriage of John Elliker, son of Rev. and Mrs. B. R. Elliker of Galion to Janet Carpenter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McKim Carpenter of Detroit. The couple are now living in Alexandria, Va. following a wedding trip in the eastern states.

The wedding was solemnized June 19 in St. Paul's Memorial Episcopal church, Detroit. Guests were seated by Richard Carpenter, brother of the bride and William Snyder of Galion. Dr. James Secrest also of Galion, was best man.

Joan Carpenter was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Alice Zimmerman of Waterville and Claire Cortes of Cincinnati. A dinner for the wedding party was served at Dearborn Inn.

The bride was graduated in June from Miami university where she specialized in physical education. Mr. Elliker was graduated from Miami last year, and has been taking a post-graduate course at Georgetown university, Washington, D. C. He is employed in that city by the Navy in a civilian capacity.

Two Years of Oblivion

THE two-year Communist plan for absorbing Berlin into the Soviet occupation zone of Germany is an admission of weakness if it were ordinary psychological warfare being waged between the Soviet Union and the Western Powers, the advantage would lie with them. In effect the Kremlin has told Berliners that they have two years to go before oblivion in the Soviet Union, barring the remote possibility of rescue by the Western Powers.

But this isn't ordinary psychological warfare. Russia doesn't care how much credit the Western Powers may get for trying to beat the blockade of Berlin as long as it succeeds in absorbing the city into its economic and political system. The Kremlin is successfully tightening a rule of terror on the Berlin area. It holds the city's population as hostages, warning them that those who show sympathy for the Western Powers will be punished.

The United States and its western allies can't supply Berlin from the air indefinitely. They can only try at great cost to offset some of the effects of the Russian blockade, hoping against hope that something may turn up to avert the clash of arms which the Kremlin seems determined to precipitate.

The Finns Snub Russia

FINLAND'S second election since the war finds that country more strongly resolved than ever to reject communism. In a free ballot the Communist front dropped from first to third place in the national assembly, with the right-of-center Agrarians emerging as the dominant party.

There probably are several reasons the Kremlin allowed this free election. Although Russian flags fly over Finnish ports and an ironclad treaty binds Helsinki to Moscow, Russia may have kept hands off the balloting so as not to alienate further the non-Communists in other lands who seek amity with Moscow. Perhaps Russia is busy enough on other frontiers at the moment. Any such coup as that undertaken in Prague might result in strong resistance, and the Russians hardly have forgotten the battle the Finns put up along the Mannerheim line in the grim winter of 1939-40.

The Finns have shown typical courage in their election. But the outcome is no cause for jubilation. In its own good time, when it is less occupied elsewhere, the politburo will take cognizance of the results.

Words They'll Remember

IN HIS appearances around the country Henry Wallace has been speaking kindly of the Communists, but in a recent New Hampshire appearance he changed his tune somewhat. He said "If the Communists would run on a ticket of their own this year we might lose 100,000 votes but would gain 3,000,000. I know if the Communists really wanted to help us they would run their own ticket this year and let us get those extra votes."

While the Communists have had occasion to chide Wallace for his espousal of "progressive capitalism," they haven't made an issue of such statements. But his latest observation will be filed for future reference. Communists don't forget that kind of talk.

Meanwhile, Wallace is stuck with them. When a politician is in league with the Communists, he is theirs until the renunciation, by one side or the other, is complete and bitter. His New Hampshire statement puts Wallace in line for denunciation, when the occasion presents itself, as "an adventurous promulgator of oppositionalistic ideas," if that term is still in style when the time comes.

It Doesn't Seem To Matter

IF THERE were a Pulitzer prize for the most interesting report on the least important subject of the year, it would belong to the newspaperman who found out that the leg paint business is collapsing.

The long look—the new one, not the old one the boys used to give the girls when they walked past the poolroom—has hidden so much of the female leg that there's only an occasional market for the makeup preparations almost everybody was using two summers ago. In fact, according to the reporter who dug up the information that the "bottled stocking" business is sagging, most women now are wearing stockings.

This is very interesting. It's an important thing to know. Though it doesn't seem to matter what women wear on their legs, if the legs are draped in the long look. It's possible some of them may be wearing hip boots. If so, who cares—except some reporter looking for a new angle on an old subject?

Scanning the Record

By George E. Sokolsky

Democrats Cannot Consistently Reject Truman.

THE Democrats can have no candidate other than Harry Truman without repudiating a large part of the 16-year history of their tenure in office. And much of that record is the conduct of the foreign policy of this country including Teheran, Yalta, Potsdam, the Morgenthau plan and similar monstrosities for which Roosevelt and, in part, Truman are responsible. Nor can the Democrats safely repudiate the Marshall China policy, the Voice of America, the confusions in the management of Germany and ERP. The State department made the Berlin situation by a hot-and-cold policy which no one, and surely not the Russians, can understand.

SOKOLSKY

To throw Harry Truman out would be to acknowledge that the Democrats are without program and that all they seek is a glamour boy. Such a boy could find in Dr. Eisenhower who is, beyond doubt, one of the most glamorous gentlemen of this generation and who must be regarded as something of a Republican, although he has now become partyless again. Dr. Eisenhower ought not to permit his name to be used and he apparently will not. However this must be said: that candidate Eisenhower would be altogether a different personality from General Eisenhower. It might well be that at the end of the campaign the learned president of Columbia university would not have been as glamorous as he is today.

Douglas Mentioned

The other name mentioned among Democrats is that of Justice William O. Douglas of the supreme court of the United States. His proponents set him up as a sop to Henry Wallace, the theory being that Douglas is as far to the left as Old Hank and that those frenetic elements in our population who find the Guru satisfactory would find Douglas satisfactory.

That argument kills Douglas as a candidate. For if he is a disciple of Henry Wallace, why not take the Guru? If the Democrats need Henry to win, why not take Henry? Certainly, Mr. Justice Douglas is being proclaimed by those elements in our party who have steadily and unremittingly offended the southern Democrats and brought them to the verge of rebellion against the management of their party. Is Douglas more acceptable to them than Truman?

In fact, this support raises the question of the fitness of Mr. Douglas to continue to serve on the supreme court bench. For what these left-wingers imply is that he is so much one of their number as biased on their side, such a partisan of their line, that he is incapable of serving justice with an even hand. Perhaps they overdo their case and denounce their own choice unwittingly by characterizing full praise. But it as it may, their praise has surely killed off Douglas as a candidate.

And that leaves only Harry Truman who can stand on a record. That will also force Tom Dewey's hand. For whereas he might avoid firing shots at the foreign policy and device himself solely to domestic questions, should Eisenhower or Douglas run, he cannot dodge a full discussion of the conduct of the war and the peace, should Truman run. And he will have to make a full disclosure of his part in that bipartisan foreign policy, as perverted into a Republican imprimatur of an already accomplished Truman policy during the past two years. Dewey will have to make that clear or risk the criticism which preceded his 1944 speeches and helped to bring on his defeat in that year.

My estimate is that Dewey will meet this challenge with strength of purpose. The authors of the bipartisan policy originally were Tom Dewey and John Foster Dulles. They were undoubtedly, inked by Senator Vandenberg's willingness to go along with Truman without prior consultation, but they are not responsible either for that decision or for the practices that arose from it. And perhaps now that Senator Vandenberg is no longer a candidate, he, too, will have something to say on the subject. Dewey will never permit Truman to force him into an acceptance of propositions, as a candidate which he is bound to reject as president should he be elected.

The internationalists are trying hard to keep this issue out of the campaign and they will fail.

Question of German Peace

By Walter Lippmann

NOW that we have the Russian bear by the tail the immediate alternatives are both impossible. It would be a political disaster to let go, it is technical absurdity to hold on very long.

To surrender Berlin to the Russians would invalidate all the guarantees of security on which we have invited the western Europeans and the western Germans to stake their future. But to supply the allied sectors of Berlin by air is obviously only a spectacular and temporary answer to the ground blockade.

The critical aspect of the situation is that even if the Russians relax the blockade, as they have indicated that they may, our position in Berlin will be as precarious as it was before. The Russians will still control access to Berlin.

LIPPMANN

As long as they occupy Germany east of the Elbe River, Berlin is surrounded by their troops and they can when they deem it expedient, restore the blockade.

Therefore in order to maintain the position in Berlin we should have to keep our fleet of air transports with all their pilots and crews and ground personnel waiting, but always ready. For that reason among many others Gen. Clay ought to be directed to amend his declaration that we are staying in Berlin: he should be told to say that we are staying in Berlin as long as the Russians stay in Berlin and around it, but that when they withdraw we can withdraw. Then Berlin cannot be blockaded and Berlin will not have to be supplied by air.

We cannot afford to continue to ignore the fact that the Soviet government is publicly on record as favoring "the swift conclusion of the German peace treaty" and "the swift withdrawal of the occupying forces from Germany." This declaration was made at the Warsaw conference which ended less than two weeks ago. It marks a radical change in the Soviet position foreshadowed for the first time—I think I am right on this—in Stalin's reply to Henry Wallace. As recently as November at the beginning of the last council of foreign ministers in London Molotov took an exactly opposite position, insisting on a prolonged and indeterminate military occupation of Germany.

There can be very strong reasons that the purpose of the Berlin blockade is to bring about a four-power negotiation for a German peace treaty. I do not see how we can fail to consider this proposal very seriously, to explore it slowly, carefully and thoroughly, and to take the appropriate measures in Western Europe. For a German peace treaty followed by the swift withdrawal of the Russian armies is a wholly different proposition from a German peace treaty as Molotov entered it last November with the Russian army still occupying Germany.

Objections

In weighing this proposition we may begin with the objections which will be raised. It will be said that the withdrawal of all the occupying forces, including our own, will deprive France and western Europe of the protection which exists because they cannot be attacked without first attacking the American army. But if the Russian army had been withdrawn 500 miles to the east can it be denied that it would be very much more difficult for the Russian army to invade western Europe? I do not see how it can be denied.

Nevertheless positive measures to make the west secure against Russia and against a resurgent Germany will still be necessary. An American military guaranty implemented with American rearmament with military landlease and even with skeleton American forces based on western Europe should be arranged, signed, sealed and ratified by Congress before a German peace treaty is agreed to.

Moreover a full-scale rearmament is conceivable only if Germany is allied with or protected by a great power. It should therefore be a paramount aim of our policy to separate the Germans from the Russians.

The next objection is that though the Red Army were withdrawn there would remain behind the German Communists, the Soviet agents and an underground German army trained and indoctrinated in the Russian prisoner of war camps. There is I am told on the best American authority no evidence that such a German army now exists. But it would be prudent to assume that it could exist.

If it does exist or if it did its mere existence would be a downright breach of any peace treaty which was made with Germany. The treaty should therefore authorize the neighbors of Germany and certainly Britain and America, to take swift measures of reprisal.

Without the Red Army and without a German army a Communist seizure of power in Germany would not be easy. It might be a repeat performance of Prague. But if we are lucid and firm we can obtain powerful international sanctions against a Communist or a National Socialist seizure of Germany.

New Chevrons

THE new and smaller chevrons for non-commissioned army officers distinguishing between those in "combat" and non-combat service will be a step such as the new stripes are in general aspect. It did not its plans for the new insignia some time ago as part of its career guidance program.

Men in combat jobs will wear chevrons of dark blue on a gold background and noncombat soldiers will wear gold on a dark blue background. The new insignia will be two-thirds the size of the present stripes. In addition to the difference in color noncommissioned officers designated as combat leaders—squad sergeant and platoon sergeant, for example—will wear an inch wide green tab on the middle of each shoulder loop.

From News of Other Years

TEN YEARS AGO

It was Friday, July 8, 1938.

Mrs. Bess Marks, president of the auxiliary, Bird McGinnis Post No. 162 American Legion, Mrs. Ida Leser and Mrs. L. M. Eikenbary and daughter Lois were among the 70 women attending a picnic at the home of Mrs. Ruth Selanders at Ashley. Mrs. Selanders was president of the Ashley auxiliary.

A temperature record was set when the mercury climbed to a season's high of 93, three degrees above the previous maximum for the summer.

Lloyd L. Young son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Young of East Church street, was in a hospital at Lancaster receiving treatment for a fractured leg suffered in a game of tennis. He had been working in Lancaster.

Miss Josephine Herman had resigned as an instructor of public speaking and languages at the Morral schools to accept a position in a high school near Cleveland.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

It was Sunday, July 6, 1928.

All heat records for the year were broken when the mercury climbed to 90. Excessive heat throughout Ohio was held responsible for almost an unprecedented number of deaths from heat prostration as well as traffic accidents and drownings. Among the fatalities was the death from drowning in Cleveland of Emil Pletcher, 21, of Iberia, who was overcome by cramps while swimming.

Mrs. Virginia Wilson, 84, died at her home on Cherry street.

A company of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Al Folk and daughter Verne, were guests at the Folk home two miles south of Marion at a celebration of Miss Folk's birthday anniversary.

The Mansfield Tunckers defeated the Marion Eagles at Mansfield, 11 to 4. Longshore and Noel pitched for Marion and Stahl and Mays did the catching.

The Charges Against Tito

Cominform Puts the Finger on a Deviationist.

THE COMINFORM'S charges against Marshal Tito consist of eight specifications couched in the usual Marxist jargon, accusing him of adventurous, non-Marxistic acts.

The Cominform statement then concludes with this summary of Tito's sins:

"The Information Bureau maintains that the basis of all these faults of the leadership of the Communist party of Yugoslavia is the incontestable fact that in its leadership in the last 5 to 6 months openly nationalistic elements prevailed which also were there formerly masked. It says the leadership of the Communist party in Yugoslavia traditions of the Yugoslav Communist party and took the way of nationalism.

"Yugoslav leaders, badly orienting themselves in the international situation and frightened by extortionate threats of the imperialists think that by a series of concessions to imperialistic states, they can gain the favor of these states to make an agreement with them about the independence of Yugoslavia, and gradually to implant to the Yugoslav peoples orientation on these states—that is, orientation on capitalism.

"At the same time they slightly go out on the well known bourgeois-nationalistic thesis under which the capitalist states represent a lesser danger for the independence of Yugoslavia than Soviet Russia.

"Leading Yugoslav factors presumably do not understand, or at least pretend not to understand, that a similar nationalistic conception can lead to the degeneration of Yugoslavia into the usual bourgeois republic and to a loss of Yugoslav independence to the imperialistic countries.

"The Information Bureau does not doubt that in the very heart of the Communist party of Yugoslavia there are enough sound elements that are truly faithful to Marxism-Leninism, faithful to the international traditions of the Yugoslav Communist party and faithful to the united socialist front.

"The aim of these sound elements of the Communist party of Yugoslavia is to force their present leading factors to confess openly and honestly their faults and correct them, to part from nationalism, to return to internationalism and in every way to fix the united socialistic front against imperialism. Or, if the present leaders of the Communist party of Yugoslavia prove unable to do this task, to change them and to raise from below a new internationalist leadership of the Communist party of Yugoslavia.

"The Information Bureau does not doubt that the Communist party can fulfill this task."

School Brightener

CHICAGO—The Stolp school in suburban Wilmette is bright—and so, it seems, are the children.

The place has a new paint job. Walls are pale yellow, baby blue and other pastel hues. The blackboard is dark green and the chalk is yellow.

"There's an entirely different attitude now," says Gordon Walker, an instructor. "There's no late afternoon letdown. The kids stay awake and always are ready for something. Of course that makes the teacher's job a little harder."

BOSTON—An $89,000 gift by U. S. Senator Leverett Saltonstall was among the total of $6,371,809 donated to Harvard University during the past year.

Saltonstall's gift, setting up a fund in memory of his son, Peter Brooks Saltonstall who was killed on Guam, will be used to provide Harvard scholarships for students from the far Pacific. It also will finance research designed to raise living standards in the Hawaiian Islands, Australia and New Zealand.

Thoughts on The Boating Season

The boating season is with us again and on lake, river and ocean fronts on the week-harassed men and women are exhausting themselves in a frenzied determination to get away from it all via the compass, scoot and tiller routine.

The urge to cast off and go for a few hours where there are no traffic lights, phone calls, Gallup polls or war rumors is terrific. Inflation has raised the cost of everything from the yachting cap and the rubber shoes to the yacht and its groceries but once a man has made up his mind to get out and lose his bearings amid the seagulls nothing can stop him.

It is amazing how many men who get panicky if they find themselves ashore where they are not sure of the house numbers, think it a pleasure to have any ideas where they are aboard ship.

PHILLIPS

• • •

Yachting is a process of getting lost, sunburned, confused, dampened and squeamish with a will of iron.

• • •

It is an endeavor to feel carefree if it worries you sick. It is a search for recreation among spar buoys, canned foods, white caps, squalls, low ceilings, uncomfortable bunks, motor troubles and strange regulations.

• • •

Rule one requires you to wear a white cap, keep a chart which you can't read, determine your whereabouts by binoculars and carry a horn, a raft, life preservers, a boarding ladder and a case of rum. On dry land any such job would bring a revolt, at sea it is called delightful.

• • •

An auto is comparatively inexpensive. It serves you twelve months instead of three and at no time do you have to varnish it, look for openings in its seams, plug up a hole, aft, pump it out or bail a tug to get it off a sandbar.

• • •

In an auto none of your friends expect you to mix drinks, play poker and whip up a lunch in transit. On a yacht it is compulsory.

• • •

With a boat you get June forces of "Izzat so?" July and August and spend the other nine months planning changes in design, going over the equipment, arguing with the shipyard owner, checking bills, wondering about the insurance and condemning the yacht club directors for another assessment.

• • •

What really makes a man go for the yacht routine anyhow? It must be the yen to escape painting the porch, flee the traffic jam and for a brief interval find a life where there are no signs reading "No Parking," "Joe's Jumbo Hot Dogs" and "Antiques for Sale."

Fetch our open dory, skipper, and let's cast off for the open sea with a hearty "Yo ho!" And mind the Coast Guard rules, the bitters and the icepick!

James Russel Lowell, Take It Away!

What is so rare as a day in June?
Then if ever each morning brings
Rain and the foghorn's dismal tune
And even ducks wearing waterwings
Whether we look or whether we listen
We hear the puddle and see it glisten
The cowslip drowns in the meadows green
The buttercup groans with a look of malice
And there's never a leaf nor a blade too mean
To serve as a wet bee's swimming palace
The little bird longs for a vanished sun
And perched on a birdbath far from bliss
Leers at the garden-loving one
And chirps, What a fool idea was this!"
His mate feels the eggs in humid peace
And nervously at the damp nest plucks
Exclaiming "These eggs will come up geese
With maybe a pair or two of ducks!"
UN and New York City are left out on a limb by a refusal of Congress to appropriate the money for a home on a site where scores of buildings have been razed. For the present perhaps it would be well to put up a marker reading

The Bathtub Situation

By TRUMAN TWILL

Did you know there are fewer bathtubs than automobiles in this country—only one bathtub for every six people against an automobile for every four?

And no wonder.

If automobile manufacturers had been as unprogressive as bathtub manufacturers we'd still be winding up their product with a crank and worrying about breaking a link in the chain drive.

The only thing that has changed about the bathtub since it came into the market—the only important thing—is the faucet. It no longer looks like a galvanized watering trough. Instead it looks like an enameled watering trough.

Everything else in the modern home has been made automatic, but not the bathtub. It still has to be filled the hard way and the temperature of the water tested with the big toe. The inevitable ring still has to be scrubbed off by brute force, and it's still one of the prime sources of broken bones and torn ligaments.

Dishes and the family washing now can be laundered by machinery that does everything but think for itself, but the human body continues to be laundered by a process suggestive of the wooden tub on the back porch on Saturday night—or in front of the kitchen stove when the weather turned cold.

The American people are ready for a washing machine that will launder people without muss, fuss or supervision—something that will clean up a dirty child in three minutes without stooping, squatting, squinting or scolding.

It could be done. The manufacturers of bathtubs could run up a little masterpiece featuring strategically aimed jets of water and revolving brushes which would do the whole job automatically. Simply follow directions:

"Remove all clothes from body and place here. Set temperature and time dials at desired place—hot, medium, tepid—three, five or seven minutes. Close lid and push button. Caution: Do not push button before closing lid. Warning: No harsh solvents should be used in this machine."

The bathing operation would be speeded up. The six people who use one bathtub, according to the statistics, would have a better chance to get satisfaction when the line forms on the right. There would be fewer dirty ears and neglected necks, fewer broken arms and legs, fewer scaldings, fewer tempers lost and bathrooms flooded.

Weddings

Of interest here is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Betty Ann Paul, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Paul of Chillicothe, to Donald Merle Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Adams of LaRue. The couple were united in marriage Sunday afternoon, June 6 in the Walnut Street Methodist church in Chillicothe. The double ring ceremony was read at 2 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. John B. Taylor. The altar was decorated with palms and ferns and lighted candles in two seven branch candelabra.

A half-hour program of nuptial music was presented preceding the ceremony by Miss Jessie Hilliard, organist, and Kenneth D. Tatman, soloist.

The bride was attired in a gown of white satin fashioned with a fitted bodice with a narrow pointed neckline, long sleeves which ended in points over the hands and a full hooped skirt with a tunic extending into a long train. Her veil of illusion edged in lace was caught to a white satin half-bonnet trimmed with orange blossoms. She carried a white Bible topped with white roses tied with white streamers and white shattered carnations. Her jewelry was a double strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was Mrs. John Frederick Miller Jr. of Frankfort. Bridesmaids were Miss Nancy Lawson, Miss Mary Hood and Miss Joyce James, junior bridesmaid was Miss Barbara Paul, sister of the bride and flower girl was little Miss Jackie Barnes of Galion.

Mrs. Miller's gown was of pink taffeta designed with a square neckline, cap sleeves, fitted bodice, peplum and full skirt. The bridesmaids wore identical gowns of aqua blue taffeta styled like that of the bride. Each carried a colonial bouquet of sweetheart roses, delphinium, stephanotis and baby breath. The flower girl wore a dress of white organdy and she carried a basket of rose petals.

Wayne Eberwayne of Dayton served as best man for the bridegroom. Ushers were Frederick Adams, brother of the bridegroom, John Frederick Miller Jr. of Frankfort, David James and David Heraldson.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Paul chose a navy blue crepe dress with white accessories. Mrs. Adams was attired in an aqua crepe dress with white accessories. Each wore a corsage of pink and white roses.

A reception in the church social rooms for about 200 guests followed the ceremony. When the couple left on a wedding trip through the southern states, Mrs. Adams was wearing a white palm beach suit with navy blue and white accessories and her bridal corsage. They will make their future home near LaRue.

Mrs. Adams is a graduate of Chillicothe High school. Mr. Adams was graduated from LaRue High school and the Ft. Trumbull Engineering school at New London, Conn. He served three years in the Navy during World War II, and is now engaged in farming.

Attending the wedding from this vicinity were Mrs. C. B. Frame and Miss Jane Frame of Athens, Mrs. Ethel Collins and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Passer of Kenton, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Braden, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Adams and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Buckingham of Marion, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Adams, Leslie Adams and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Norris of LaRue, Harry Adams of Galion and Mr. and Mrs. Ransom Buck of New Bloomington.

Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Taylor of 961 Henry street are announcing the marriage Sunday afternoon of their daughter, Marilyn Jean and George Chambers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chambers of 988 Cheney avenue. The double ring ceremony was read at 2:30 o'clock in Oakland Evangelical United Brethren church by Rev. H. V. Falor, pastor. Gene Decker, organist, played 'The Lord's Prayer' and other nuptial music and Mrs. Richard Key and Miss Grace Cyders sang duet arrangements of 'I Love You Truly,' 'Because,' and 'O Promise Me.'

The bride, given in marriage by her father chose for her wedding a white silk jersey dress with lace trimmed neckline and peplum, white hat and other white accessories including lace mitts. She carried a white Testament with corsage of pink roses.

DRILL REQUIRED TO ESCAPE DRAFT

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, July 8—To remain draft exempt, organized reservists must not miss more than one out of 10 drill periods

This is one of the qualifications Secretary of Defense Forrestal laid down at a new conference discussion of the new selective service act

Another is that the reserve unit must have at least 35 scheduled drills a year, or the equivalent.

The draft act passed by congress said that enlistment in reserve organizations with regular training schedules would make them exempt but the law didn't specify exactly what those units should be It left the definition up to the secretary of defense

After consulting with experts of the Army, Navy and Air Force Forrestal yesterday issued a memorandum to the services. In substance, it said this

If a man was a member of an organized reserve unit by midnight of June 24—the day the bill became law—and the unit had at least 35 scheduled drills a year or training periods equivalent to that, he is exempt from induction But there must be 'satisfactory participation' by the reserve member If his absence from drill exceeds 10 per cent, he will become eligible for the draft once inductions get under way around late September.

Men who were members of federally recognized National Guard units, either ground or air organizations, by midnight of June 24, will be exempt

ished There are only two or three smaller in the whole state, he declared

"I beg of you to consider bond issue propositions very carefully Be certain of what is going to happen lest you spend money for facilities that may become obsolete and discarded later on

He had reference to two districts in particular Grand Prairie and Claridon both of which are contemplating bond issues for additional school facilities for their districts

Makes Two Proposals

"I am not here to sell you anything the field agent said but in order to give your children a good school and a good program well handled, these proposals are being offered for your consideration

▶The first was for one county high school with an enrollment of approximately 704 pupils Elementary schools would be left where they are

'There is no reason why it can't be done' Mr St Clair said 'You have good roads in a level country, with no point more than 25 minutes distant from the center of the county With one county high school all those things every school wants to do could be done Your district valuation would be about $32 350 000

▶The alternate proposal was for three high schools each the center of a district One district would comprise Claridon Caledonia Tully Scott and Grand Prairie with approximately 176 high school students and 630 elementary school students

The second would comprise LaRue Morral Mrieker and New Bloomington with a high school enrollment of 234 and grade school enrollment of 627 The third would be made up of Green Camp Pleasant Prospect and Waldo with a high school enrollment of 286 and elementary enrollment of 764

A 'consolidated system would make possible a continuous program effecting a shorter school day to offset any disadvantage of a longer distance to and from school, it was pointed out Also cited was a possible reduction of expense derived from the fewer number of teachers that would be needed

Question Answered

Throwing the meeting open to questions the field agent answered queries from members of the county school district boards.

Kenneth Robinson asked if consolidation had been actually completed and was in operation in any of the counties in the state as yet The answer was not yet but many are studying the proposition and are taking steps to effect mergers of districts

How would the single district be operated' was a question from a board member It could be operated by the appointment of a board of education by the county board to control the district high school and elementary schools until a representative board was named at a general election to serve the high school and its district was the answer

Some Voice Approval

Several representatives of school boards in the county including Forrest Loudenslager of Morral said they favored the idea of consolidation

Loudenslager said he had found from experience that a consolidated set-up works very well His children were in a consolidated system in Florida for a time and found much better facilities than they had at home he reported

How about existing obligations of districts in the event of a merger' another rural board member asked They would be assumed by the district, Mr. St Clair said

He suggested community meetings be held to air these proposals especially if bond issues for new construction are pending in any of the districts

It was suggested that a committee be appointed to study the proposals and prepare data relative to details involved in consolidation the committee to meet with Mr St Clair at intervals to work out financial estimates type of program and personnel needed

Named on the committee were W E Harrington of Morral Mrs Iris Knapp of LaRue Virgil L. Anderson of Prospect O M Mills of Caledonia Jack Sims of Meeker R M Hough of Claridon Wallace Linn of Grand Prairie Beaver Bricker of Green Camp Alvin LaRue of New Bloomington R P Terrell of Pleasant Harry Longacre of Scott Howard Crawbaugh of Tully and Walter Bender of Waldo

Pup Stands to Death At Its Mother's Grave

By The United Press

WEDDINGHAM, Ala — A shining example of canine loyalty was revealed when a thin, nearly-starved cocker was brought to a veterinary hospital here. The pitiful bag of skin and bones had been found by its owner after having been missing two-and-one-half weeks

The pup was located finally at the grave of its mother, which was buried on the same day her two-year-old offspring disappeared.

Attempts to save its life by feeding through the veins failed.

Quadruplets occur once in about 700,000 births.

Slow Action Salt Pill Prescribed for Heat

By The United Press

WILLOW RUN, Mich. — In many pills prescribed by doctors fast action is essential. Dr Clifford H. Keene, medical director for Ramer-Fraker Corporation has tried the opposite approach with a "delayed action pill" for those hot weather blues.

Dr Keene's pill is a new salt tablet with a slow-melting gelatin cover which enables it to pass completely through the stomach before dissolving. The purpose is to eliminate nausea and salt irritation which sometimes result from the conventional tablet

Workers whose jobs cause them to perspire excessively get the tablets from dispensers located throughout the plant.

VACATION COST JOINS RISING PRICES TREND

By The United Press

MINNEAPOLIS You can't ain't even afford 56 vacations this year.

Take a typical one-week vacation, nothing fancy, and it will cost from 20 to 100 per cent more than it did in 1940

Make that stay at home and roast weiners in the back yard Hope Weiners are nearly three times as expensive as in 1940 and buns are up about 90 per cent

That cruise from New York to Nassau Hawaii or Miami you'll recall At the prices here and there and the wanderer could wrap up $120 for the 12-day trip in 1940 Now the same cruise sets $218 50 minimum an increase of 82 per cent

Almost all the trips are the same way with one-third of one-fourth of the increase due to transportation taxes The rest is just plain old inflation in summer clothes according to the farm economics bureau of Northwestern National Life Insurance Company

Accessories Soar

Sports enthusiasts taxes have risen to the vacation goods business shows sports shoes and sporting tackle and tennis rackets are zoomed skyward also

The only major sports that are in the range of average Americans vacation kits have been stuck from 40 to 60 per cent

Golf clubs have about doubled in price with 1948's $6 woods and irons selling at $10 and more jumping from $5 to $10 in the eight years A steel casting rod that sold for $11 before the war is $17 today with lower priced rods in about the same proportion

Luggage Expensive

Another place where inflation and taxes gnaw the traveler is a 100 per cent rise in the cost of luggage Cameras have about doubled also although camera film is keeping with auto tires are two of the few items which have increased in price very much since before the war

Triplets occur once in about 8 800 births

TEACHERS CRITICAL OF DEWEY STAND

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, July 8—Representatives of America's teachers were ready today to rebuke Gov Thomas E Dewey unless he explained to their satisfaction a report he made making remarks about the teachers lobby

The delegation from the Republican presidential nominee's own state of New York was especially upset and injured by his failure to answer their request that he clarify his views for some 3,500 educators meeting here in the 86th annual National Education Association Convention

John A Cullen of Mount Vernon, N Y, new state director and a teacher of aviation mechanics, said

"This is a slap in the face to the teachers, especially in New York We sent him a decently worded note asking his side We didn't condemn him in public All we want to do is to hear what Mr Dewey has to say about this

By "this" Cullen meant statements which Columnist Drew Pearson said Dewey made last month at a governors conference in Portsmouth, N H

The Pearson column, read in a general session yesterday, reported Dewey tried in vain to get other governors to fight the teachers lobby with a $50,000 publicity campaign The column said further that Dewey described teachers' propaganda for pay raises as "the biggest lie since Adolf Hitler"

NEA President Glenn E Snow of St George Utah, said every effort was being made to get Dewey to send a satisfactory answer by noon today The five-day meeting ends tomorrow night

Delegates regarded as unsatisfactory a telephoned denial of the criticism which Dewey authorized his secretary James Hagerty, to make Tuesday to Martin L Wilson, a New York City NEA delegate and a political supporter of the governor

FRENCHMEN DREAM OF LOTTERY FORTUNE

By The United Press

PARIS Some 500,000 Frenchmen go to bed every week with the hope that they will wake up rich in the morning

They are holders of 600,000 tickets issued every seven days by the national lottery The big winner can gain as much as 15,000,000 francs (about $50,000) Smallest prize is 500 francs (about $1.65)

The lottery has been a French institution since 1933 During the first year of the war and again after the allied invasion it was suspended because of practical difficulties Today it is flourishing again

Scrape Up 430 Francs

Despite skyrocketing living costs, Frenchmen still manage to scrape up the 430 francs which a ticket costs In fact dreams of winning 'le gros lot' seem even more attractive today in the face of the current financial hardships

Minor groups protest that such gambling is wrong and undignified Actually the French lottery is run by the government and is under the particular care of the ministry of finance Its profits go to the treasury

Just how much those profits are is a state secret

"But the money doesn't go as far as before the war," an official told the United Press "The cost of living is about 13 times higher than in 1939 The price of a lottery ticket is only about four times more"

Posters Advertise It

Huge colored posters advertising the lottery are as much a part of Paris scenery as the Eiffel Tower Every tobacconist is authorized to sell tickets.

Officials point with pride to the "sensible" way lottery winners have spent their money. They cite the case of M Bonhoure, a hairdresser of Tarascon, winner of the first 5,000,000 francs in the "gros lot" of 1933 M Bonhoure bought a property in the neighborhood and works it himself The second winner that year also bought a property. The third a miller, "had the good sense to remain one" according to officials.

One of few winners who celebrated lavishly seems to have been an M Duston who won the 'gros lot" in Oran in 1945 He staged municipal celebrations lasting two days They included a bowling contest a cross-country race with prizes for all, food baskets for the needy, a large dance, and a community cocktail party. Officials say they do not know whether Duston had any money left.

FAMOUS MAGICIAN'S GRAVE IS DISCOVERED

By The United Press

PHOENIX, Ariz.—A shrine is planned here to mark the grave of Paul Valadon, "father of modern magic" and one of the greatest vaudeville performers of his day

Valadon's exit from the show world at the peak of his career 36 years ago was a mystery to puzzling as his theatrical stunts. A few days ago, his unmarked grave was discovered here by the Magicians Guild of the United States in a storybook climax

According to Julian J Proskauer, New York, past president of the guild, "Valadon was the Houdini of his day—a great single-act-head man."

He grave was located by a study of pioneer vital statistics.

The story of his tragic end then was supplied by his son, Paul Valadon, now a Phoenix city employe.

Young Valadon said his father was a headliner on the Orpheum circuit for many years after he came to this country from England. Thurston and Keller, also great magicians of their day, were his partners at one time. But his greatest fame came from the spectacular illusions he invented and staged with the help of eight assistants.

Miserably ill with tuberculosis, he came to Phoenix with his pals but was unable to shake off the disease. He died in 1913 at the age of 46 without funfare in a young bustling town already accustomed to victims of the malady.

Oil," reports Mr. Norstad Mills, President of Blackhawk Stores, Indianapolis dairy "Using Marathon V.E.P. for the past 2 years in our 50 delivery trucks and several passenger cars, we definitely had a single engine failure due to lubrication . . . and no stuck rings or valves due to sudden and sludge."

SHOOT OUT TO CANADA

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Will's Hospitality Isn't "Cracked"!

Ever since January, Will Dudley planned to give his living room that "new look"—planned to carefully refinish the woodwork and replaster the walls.

Every time Will got out the putty to start filling in the cracks, a neighbor stopped by to pass the time of day – and first thing you knew, there was a group of us helping Will do the job up right. After Will called a halt to the evening's work, we'd sit around the fire enjoying a friendly argument and a sparkling glass of mellow beer.

So Will's living room doesn't look like it did a year ago—but it's by far the most "livable" living room I know! A place you can always drop in for good talk, good beer, and a warm welcome.

From where I sit, as long as Will puts that atmosphere of hospitality and good fellowship ahead of everything else, we'll all be happy to help Will change the looks of his living room any time he wants.

REDS GET HELP FROM CUB BOOTS

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, July 8 — The Redlegs of Cincinnati playing their best baseball in recent weeks got help from an unexpected quarter yesterday as they coasted to their third straight victory.

Chicago's Andy Pafko National league All-Star third baseman connected two wild throws and shortstop Roy Smalley booted an easy grounder to give the Reds five unearned runs in the first inning and from there on it was a breeze as they trounced the Cubs 10-3.

Ewell Blackwell, the Reds' Cincinnati ace in the American circuit, took the mound against the Cubs today for the third game of the series against Bob Rush, Cub pitching opponent.

The errors by Pafko and Smalley, along with a base on balls and Augie Galan's single counted two Cincinnati runs. Shortstop Virgil Stallcup promptly singled home two more markers and catcher Ray Lamanno drove in another before Hank Borowy relieved Cub starter Bob Chipman, preventing further scoring.

The Cubs' one run in the ninth was one of the few times the Reds' fleet right fielder Frankie Baumholtz clopped an inside-the-park homer in the fourth to extend the Redlegs' lead. Three more Redlegs' runs came home in the fifth on Pafko's third error and three more including Danny Litwhiler's homer and a triple by Ted Kluszewski.

The Cincinnatians scored their scoring in the eighth on Bobby Adams' double a passed ball and an infield.

Three Cub pitchers were used, one of them Pafko's second double gave the Cubs their final markers off Kenny Raffensberger who went the route for his fifth win against three defeats.

State To Take Bids On Road Work in This Area

Resurfacing of two and a half miles on state route 529 in Pleasant and Marion townships is included in a tri-county project one of 66 on which the state highway department will open bids July 13.

Announcement of the date on which bids will be opened was made in Columbus today by Highway Director Earl L. Reeb. The 66 projects offered constitute the largest number ever offered and amount to $2,631,950, the highway director said.

Among the 621 miles of highway included in the projects are sections of state routes in Hardin, Wyandot, Crawford, Union, Delaware, Richland and Hancock counties.

Because of an anticipated overflow of contractors a public address system will be used in the lobby of the state office building for convenience in hearing reading of bids, the highway director said.

Other Contracts

In addition to the two and a half million dollar list of road projects, guard rail painting contracts worth $86,792 and five federal aid jobs carrying concealed estimates will be up for sale.

The Marion county project is linked with two projects each in Delaware and Union counties. Engineers estimate for the group of five is $46,516.59. The two Delaware county jobs are on SR-521 and the Union county project is for two sections of SR-38. Completion date is set for Oct. 1, 1948.

An individual project in Delaware county calls for widening and resurfacing US-42 for approximately three miles in Delaware and Brown townships. Engineers estimate on the job is $75,350 with Nov. 30, 1948 as completion date.

A combination road and bridge project on SR 19 in Crawford county calls for 3.5 mile road surfacing and construction of two bridges, one concrete slab and the other steel. Former bridge is to span Sycamore Creek and the latter Brokensword Creek. Engineers estimate on the project is $95,300 with completion date, August 31, 1949.

Three other Crawford county projects are included among five in a tri-county grouping with Richland and Huron counties. The group estimate is $22,387 with completion date Oct. 1. All are resurfacing jobs. Crawford county roads to be treated are SR-95, SR-96 and SR-101.

Hardin County

Two proposals in Hardin county for surface treating are for 10.44 miles on SR-53 and 26 miles on SR-53. Engineers estimate is $39,095 with an Oct. 1, 1948 completion date.

Three Union county resurfacing jobs call for 7.54 miles on SR-47, 2.92 miles on SR-347 and 4.99 miles on SR-739. Estimated cost $35,108 with an Oct. 1 completion date.

Six resurfacing jobs are slated for Wyandot county in addition to an 8 mile road construction and concrete slab bridge project. Work includes treatment of three sections on SR-103 and a section each on SR 231, SR 53 and SR-294. Estimated cost is $41,199 with an October 1 completion date.

The bridge contract calls for a concrete slab bridge over Taylor run on SR-67 plus a half mile of grading, building and paving. Cost was set at $87,400 and the project is to be completed by July 1, 1949.

Guard rail painting along sections of US-30-N and US-23 in Wyandot county, US-25, US-30-N, US-30-S and SR-117 in Allen county, US-25, US-30-N, US-68 and US-224 in Hancock county and US-30-S and SR-81 in Hardin county is grouped in a proposal estimated at $7,250 with an October 15 completion date.

GIANTS JUMP FROM THIRD TO FIRST

By The Associated Press

Springfield's Giants jumped from third to first place in the Ohio-Indiana baseball league last night by beating Marion, 9-6, while Muncie and Portsmouth were losing.

That left Springfield on top with .588 percentage, Muncie second with .588 and Portsmouth third with .577.

Fifth place Newark scored its ninth win in 13 games with Muncie last night, 10-8, when John Krukrina lined a single over third with the bases loaded and two out in the last of the ninth. Successive homers by Hal Truesen and Carl Rush paced Muncie to a 3-0 lead, but starter Hal Ensley — who walked 11 and struck out 10 — couldn't protect it.

Ray Pope coaxed off Portsmouth to Lima 8-4 with a neat seven-hitter. He struck out eight. Left fielder Al Cuccia sent the home club ahead to stay in the third with a two-run homer.

In the night's other game last place Richmond swept its series with Zanesville by winning 6-3. Jim Herndon, Richmond pitcher, held the Dodgers hitless in the final four innings. Bob Heavern of Richmond homered in the first.

Ohio Governor Favors Ag Experimental Stations

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, July 8 — Agricultural experiment stations are more important to the farmer than cash subsidies, which "too often serve only as vote bribes," says Gov. Thomas J. Herbert.

In an address to 250 Farm Bureau employes Gov. Herbert said much of the state's business welfare rests upon agriculture for "farming is Ohio's biggest industry."

"Government has a place in the picture through the activities of the department of agriculture, the state agricultural college and the various experiment farms and stations where research is carried on. He said "these are more important than cash subsidies, which too often serve only as vote bribes."

GI's Recall Their Basic Training Days As Camps Prepare To Reopen

By SCOTT McMURRAY

Veterans of World War II are smiling with recollection these days as reports of wartime army training camps reopening continue to hit news columns across the nation.

There are many things about our most recent world war a veteran may forget as the years roll by but his basic training and the camp in which he took it will never be one of them.

It has been said a basic training center is where they "weed out the men from the boys" and no graduate of these sterling academies of military prowess will ever doubt the truth of that statement.

Soon the troop trains will come rolling into the training center sidings, now rusty and weed grown. Soon the pink-cheeked fat boys will come marching at "rout" step to the not so long closed barracks and hutments and tents. You can always tell the new men in a training camp by their figures and their complexions. They all seem plump and pink or skinny and red. But soon they'll all be thin and brown. There are no fat men in a basic training center at least not for long.

Most Camps Alike

Training camps are pretty much alike. Usually they are too big. Always they are too full. They are generally quite a distance from a town, which is usually too small for the size of the camp. Many trainees will wonder, as did their older brothers and sisters, how the government could spend so much money and get so little comfort for it.

Their terrain is rugged, land usually worthless, buildings temporary, and their area generally vast. The vastness of this area is soon impressed on the men in training because of the army habit of "policing" it thoroughly and often. 'Policing', as any GI can will tell you, is the army term for cleaning thoroughly any area of ground regardless of size, removing all cigaret butts, sticks, stones, papers, and what have you.

A company at Camp Robinson, Arkansas was once directed to remove every stone from its company area bigger than a half dollar. As the land of this camp was largely composed of rock, this proved quite a task. After three nights of picking up stones between the hours of 7 to 11 p. m. the area was clean except for the one where all the stones had been piled. That pile, 15 feet high at the center and measuring 70 feet in circumference, remains to this day.

In any basic center there are the things first to impress themselves as recruits — officers who have cute officers' clubs, rough hats, authority, respect for superiors and sore feet.

Privileged Class

There are the cadre the men of iron. They have passes to town, stripes on their shirts, their own table at the mess hall, are free from KP and have strength, endurance, and patience beyond all belief. They usually have loud voices and lurid vocabularies too. They have authority, but not respect and sore feet.

As for the recruits, they have beds to make, weapons to clean, ditches to dig, "shots" to take, obstacle courses to run, dishes to wash, formations to make, only to fall back into their tents, change clothes, and fall out again. Their life is controlled by whistles, commanded by shouts and directed by that unreliable directive of life, the training schedule. They have neither authority nor respect, only sore feet.

The arrival of new trainees at a training center was always good for a couple of laughs. Trainees arrive the greenest of recruits, all civilian but the uniform, and their knowledge of rank, insignia of rank, and military courtesy is sketchy. At one southern camp in April, 1942, a new recruit was trying vainly to get his footlocker through a tent door and espying a serviceable individual across the company street who seemed to be doing nothing in particular, shouted, "Hey you, how about giving me a hand with this foot locker."

The other individual looked somewhat surprised and replied, "Young man, do you know who I am?"

"No" the rookie replied," and I don't care either."

With that the other left quickly sputtering under his breath, not revealing he was the regimental adjutant, a shining lieutenant colonel who hadn't lifted anything heavier than a fountain pen in years.

Matter of Food

After the first week the quality of training center food is seldom noticed because the average trainee could literally 'eat a horse and chase the rider". They never got enough. The food drawn by the training companies is of a quality only the best off financially solid group of trainees could afford if they had to buy it themselves. Because of the speed required in preparation and the quantity to be prepared, often by inexperienced cooks, some weird combinations sometimes result. I knew one cook who was just crazy about celery. He put it in everything from mashed potatoes to macaroni and cheese in chunks an inch long and always raw.

Training camp rulings are often unique in the camp of their origin, and are unknown to the rest of the army. One colonel commanding a training regiment in the mid-south was precise about having his men salute an officer well before reaching him. He set the saluting distance at 200 feet when passing on thoroughfares and at 200 yards when passing an officer at an angle day or night. As a result many of his trainees passed their three months training period with their right arm in the air most of the time.

Many draftees and enlistees entered the army with the idea of winning the war. This many concluded, was not the real purpose of the army. The real purpose of the army was to hold inspections, if many recruit opinions were to be believed. Many officers obeyed the rule of thumb, "When in doubt as to what to do, hold an inspection."

Training Schedules

As training camp activities are run strictly by the training schedule, made up well in advance, adverse weather sometimes brought some very rusty links in the chain of command into action. It was not unusual for a company to be training in a drenching downpour in wet soaked fatigue uniforms, or sitting in a circle around an officer equally drenched, while he lectured on field sanitation or some other subject of interest. Now and again the bored trainees could get a few words of lecture between claps of thunder as rivers of rain ran down their spines. When the rain had almost finished a runner from headquarters would come rushing up and hand the officer an order to take his men for their raincoats. Soaked to the skin the company would file back to their tents, put raincoats on over their wet uniforms, and fall back into ranks outside. By this time the sun would come beaming down and the company would march sweltering under raincoats for the next hour until word came from headquarters to remove the raincoats. No sooner were they off than it would rain again.

Of such are soldiers made and from experiences like these have come the words emblazoned on the mind of each trainee: "If I can live to get out of here I'll never worry about anything again."

Editorial writers have been saying troops can be trained efficiently without the urgency of wartime. You can get $10 for $5 on any corner from any old GI that without the "hurry up and wait on the double" it wouldn't be basic training.

TAFT TO PLAY ROLE IN GOP CAMPAIGN

By The United Press

CINCINNATI, July 8 — Sen. Robert A. Taft, (R-Ohio), said today that he was tentatively assigning himself to a modest role in the coming campaign.

Sen. Taft, resting at his home this week before going to Murray Bay Quebec, for a six-week vacation, said he will "speak in Ohio and wherever else the Republican presidential national committee may assign me."

The senator said he had talked several times to Gov. Thomas E. Dewey the Republican presidential nominee, since the Philadelphia convention.

Sen. Taft said he will reintroduce a bill providing for public housing at the next session of congress. The measure would substitute for that clause of the Taft-Ellender-Wagner bill that failed of passage at the last session.

The senator and Mrs. Taft will leave Sunday night for Washington and motor from there to the Canadian estate. He said he would clean up some unfinished business on his desk before leaving the capital.

EXPERIMENTAL TEST SINKS BATTLE-WAGON

By The Associated Press

ABOARD U S CARRIER BUNKER Hill, July 8—The once-mighty battleship New York—survivor of two wars and two atomic bomb tests—sank finally with just a "light push" from small bombs and shells.

Navy task force officers expressed regret that she didn't survive an experimental attack long enough for them to test their newest bat bombs.

But a 52 year old chief storekeeper who had boasted the New York still could take a terrific pounding earlier remarked:

"She was a tired old lady What was the point in taking more of a beating"

He is Daniel Connor of Pawtucket R I who served on her when she was commissioned 34 years ago.

The exercises 40 miles southwest of Pearl Harbor yesterday cost the life of Marine Lt. John Dale Petterborg of Preston Idaho a Marine fighter pilot He spun into the sea off the Bunker Hill stern nearly two hours after the sinking.

The 30,000-ton onetime grand dame of the United States fleet—veteran of two wars and two Bikini atomic blasts—went down at 2:30 p. m. after eight hours of air attack and light shelling.

Rear Adm. Marshall R. Greer, task force commander explained:

"When you get somebody off balance you don't have to push very hard."

The experts had figured it would take torpedoes to finish the radioactive old battlewagon today.

Another battleship, the Nevada—target ship of the Bikini test fleet—will provide the Navy another opportunity to test the "baby" bomb. She is slated to be sunk later this month.

College Prof. Told To Be Comfortable

By The United Press

CARTHAGE, Ill — Dr Erland Nelson thinks professors have just as much right as students to be comfortable in the class room.

The Carthage College president said faculty members should be encouraged to show up in open-collared, short-sleeved shirts during summer months.

"Ties are purely ornamental and coats are antiquated," he said.

NURSE DROWNS

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, July 8 — Miss Doris W Byrne 23, a nurse at Lakewood hospital was drowned in Lake Erie yesterday by a strong undertow.

BIG CATFISH IN SCIOTO, GREEN CAMP MAN REPORTS

Warren "Bud" Hottaberry of Green Camp reports the big fish are running big in the Scioto river near Green Camp.

Hottaberry reports he caught two channel catfish Sunday night one measuring 21½ inches and weighing almost three pounds and a second measuring 18½ inches.

Pat fishing worm bait and a strong arm to land them on all that a fisherman needs when he comes to Green Camp, Hottaberry says—besides his fishing license that is.

Love's Perilous Path

By ADELE GARRISON

IF THE BLOSSOMS you wish are to be found anywhere in this country, or the ones adjoining it," I told Olga, smiling, "Mr Kennedy will have them rushed in by plane, if necessary If he had a little longer time, he could get them from the Himalayas, or any other remote place He is the best florist in the east end of Long Island, and the members of the Southhampton and the Easthampton summer colonies to say nothing of the wealthier permanent residents, swear by him They say Kennedy can give you anything you wish from four leaf clovers to rare orchids

"But I shall wish the list as soon as possible," I went on "I told Mr. Kennedy I would send him a special delivery and registered letter today, with a return address to a Mr Smith in New York City—my father's device to insure secrecy He will be watching for it and will get it tomorrow doubtless. Then he will set his machinery in motion to get what he does not have within easy reach himself. But he must have the list"

"I will prepare it at once," Olga said rising "Would you come with me Madge please"

Then she turned to Olina and to Mary

"As this is to be a surprise to Olina she should not hear these plans, she said "Mary will you and Olina busy yourselves while we are gone with details of clothing accessories and also give me some suggestions of the kind of food you want for the wedding supper I have some ideas on the subject but I should like yours also We must have all our plans in readiness before Philip comes back

"We'll be busy as two little bees, Mary told her, laughing and then Olga was courteously ushering me into the library She closed the door, and to my surprise, locked it Then she motioned me to a chair, and took one opposite to me

"The list can wait for a few minutes" she said "It won't be a long one But am I mistaken in thinking there is something on your mind, something you wish to discuss with me?"

I stared at her incredulously "Are you clairvoyant, telepathic, or simply a witch who would have been burned at the stake two centuries ago?" I asked

"None of the three," she said "simply a mother most anxious for her child's happiness And something in your face when I voiced the wish that Philip would understand—I did not finish my sentence—made me think you had fathomed my meaning"

I leaned toward her and looked squarely into her eyes

"May I speak frankly?" I asked

"That is why I brought you in here," she replied Please tell me anything that is in your mind or heart which concerns Olina

"I may be wrong," I began hesitantly, "but I received the impression from what you said, or rather"—I smiled—"from what you did not say, that Philip would wish Noel to be Georges' best man, and would wish him to be attired in court costume"

She smiled a bit wanly at me

"It is you who are clairvoyant," she said "You have stated the case exactly Philip has said enough to make me realize that his heart is set on seeing Noel in that place, and in that garb"

"But it cannot be," I told her firmly. "Has Olina told you anything of our conversation a little while ago?"

"Only the high lights," she said "There wasn't time for much private talk between us She told me that Mary was to be her matron of honor, Faith her flower girl, and that you had suggested Noel for the music, because your father would not permit outside musicians to be brought in To me, that appears to be a most admirable arrangement, as does the selection of Mr "K" as best man. But I am afraid Philip is going to object strenuously"

"I don't think he will when I tell you what I learned from Georges," I told her quietly

In Plain Words

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

HERE'S an ABC on television which is getting a big boost because of the political conventions.

During the war there were only six television stations operating in this country. And they were experimental not commercial.

Now about 30 are operating from Los Angeles to New England.

Another 100 have been okayed by the federal communications commission (FCC) to start in business.

And an additional 300 have asked the FCC for licenses.

Television got off to a kind of stumbling start right after the war for several reasons. This is one of them.

James Marlow

Manufacturers of television receiving sets were a little nervous about making them until a number of television stations were operating.

And the people who wanted to set up television broadcasting stations were a little nervous about starting till enough people had receiving sets.

This problem has been ironed out.

As of now perhaps 350,000 television receiving sets have been sold. They range in price from $169 to $2,500, not counting the cost of installing them.

There are four television broadcasting networks but most of their network operations are being done up and down the heavily-populated part of the Atlantic coast.

THERE IS NO trans-continental network and won't be for some time. This will explain the problem of getting a coast-to-coast network going.

There are three ways of sending television broadcasts:

1. Direct television. This is where a station broadcasts a television show but can only do so in its own local area. So it doesn't travel far.

2. Piping television through a special conductor in a cable from a station in one city to a station in another. Then the receiving station rebroadcasts the show, but only locally.

This is called the co-axial method, so named because the cable through which the television conductor runs is called a co-axial cable.

3. Micro-wave broadcasting. Television waves, sent through the air, are picked up and relayed by a series of special relay stations.

These are really pumping stations, probably 30 miles apart, which push the micro-waves from one to the other till they reach a regular television broadcasting station which then sends the show out in its own area.

Co-axial cables for television are being laid across the country now. And pumping stations are being built in certain areas.

BUT IT WILL BE some years—probably at least two—before there is any coast-to-coast broadcast of a television show.

For example:

Right now, because of the co-axial or micro-wave system already set up in the area, a televised event can be sent up and down part of the Atlantic seaboard.

Which means The Democratic convention in Philadelphia next week can be seen simultaneously in Washington and New York.

But people in St. Louis or San Francisco can't see it at the same time. That's because the network hasn't been extended that far west.

People in San Francisco will see it if films are rushed there by plane and then televised from a San Francisco television station to the people in that area.

Right now all television broadcasts are in black and white. Someday television will be in color. That's being worked on now.

Some time ago the FCC decided commercial color television wasn't far enough along in its development to okay it for broadcasting.

But that will come in time.

Free Swimming Lessons To Continue in Bucyrus

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS—Free swimming lessons for all boys and girls in Bucyrus area were assured today when the Bucyrus Park board announced that a previously arranged nominal charge for the lessons had been abandoned. The lessons, sponsored by the Crawford County Red Cross chapter, will be taught by three young people, Adelaide Metzger, Gail Hadley and Robert Denzer who recently attended the Red Cross aquatic school at Camp Limberlost, Lagrange, Ind.

New equipment for the lessons has been purchased by the local Red Cross chapter.

Fiddles were not invented until the middle ages, hence the instrument on which Nero played while Rome burned, if he played on that occasion, was not a fiddle.

ANCIENT SKELETONS FOUND

By The United Press

SAN FRANCISCO — Two skeletons of Stone Age men and collections of stone tools have been found by the University of California African expedition, it is reported by Wendell Phillips, leader of the northern party of the expedition. The skeletons were recovered on the west side of Lake Rudolf. The discoveries may throw additional light on the spread of early man and their cultures, Phillips said.

SUES PHONE COMPANY

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, July 8 — The Ohio Bell Telephone Co. was a defendant today in a $15,000 damage suit filed by Jane Landers, a city employe, who said she tripped over "a long and looping" telephone cord at the city hall. Her petition stated she fractured her left kneecap and a resultant operation left a four-inch scar.

GAG TOO SUBTLE

By The United Press

ANTIGO, Wis. — Mrs. June Bishop didn't quite catch on when her favorite disc jockey played "Oh What a Beautiful Morning" and read a weather forecast for Texas as a gag. She took her local announcer at word-value, dressed in light summer clothes, and stepped outside into a cold, driving rain.

NEWARK TIRE PLANT TO STAY SHUT DOWN

By The Associated Press

NEWARK, O., July 8—The Pharis Tire & Rubber Company which has been shut down since May 1, will remain closed indefinitely, President Furber Marshall said today.

Its board of directors will meet July 15 in New York to consider the future course of the company which normally employs approximately 1300 persons.

"We simply can not compete with the sort of labor contract we had," Marshall explained. "It was costing us more to make tires than we could get for them."

The management has been trying since before May 1 to induce the United Rubber Workers (CIO), the plant union, to accept a new average wage rate of $1.62 an hour as compared with the former $1.74 average.

The employes have been working 30 hours a week.

Marshall said the company's proposal removes "war-time inflation" from the $1.74 rate which he described as "the highest in the industry, to the best of my knowledge."

Marshall reported that the $1.74 was at least 29 cents an hour higher than is paid by any other industry in the Newark area.

The United Rubber Workers International Board, he said, has not permitted its Newark local to vote on the company's proposal.

The Pharis company was established here 36 years ago.

HARPSTER CHURCH REOPENING PLANNED

Services Set for Sunday at Remodeled Edifice.

A special observance in the history of the Harpster community church of the Harpster Methodist parish. Re-opening day, will be held Sunday, with other congregations of the charge joining. Following considerable remodeling and repair work, the redecorated sanctuary is ready for regular services, Rev Fred Ross, pastor, reported. Joining the Harpster congregation for both the morning services and an afternoon program will be members of the Leslie Sandusky and Wyandot Methodist churches. "A genuine social fellowship and get-together is anticipated, the public is invited, and former residents and friends will receive a cordial welcome," Rev Ross said. A basket dinner will be served at noon.

Church school will be at 9:30 a. m. in charge of Mrs. Alton Salpie, and morning worship will be at 10:30. Rev Ross will preach a special sermon. The afternoon will begin at 2 o'clock and will include a song festival and special music by visiting friends and former members of the celebrating congregation. Welcome will be by Walter Turney, and a historical sketch of the church will be given by Mrs. Edith Bender. Brief addresses will be by visiting pastors. During the 18 months that the work on the church was under way services were held in the Harpster public school building.

Marysville Traffic Toll Exceeds Injury Reports

Special to The Star

MARYSVILLE, July 8—A report by Chief of Police Clarence Brown of this city comparing the traffic accident rate here in 1947 and 1948 for the first six months of each year shows that although there were more accidents in 1948 there were fewer injuries reported than in 1947.

A breakdown of the figures reveals that 10 persons were injured in 53 traffic accidents in the first half of 1947 and seven persons injured in 58 accidents in 1948's first six months. There were no deaths in either period.

RUNAWAY CAR HITS METER

KENTON—An automobile owned by Forest Dyer of Kenton yesterday broke off a parking meter standard and cracked a large window in a Kenton business place. The car which was parked on a downtown street, broke loose and careened down a hill, stopping only after the damage was done.

Some Dutch Oven Treats

HUCKLEBERRY PIE . . . Old-fashioned. Add ice cream.

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Most interesting of the many new cook books that keep coming into my kitchen are the ones devoted to regional cooking in this country. There's an especially attractive 'Pennsylvania Dutch Cook Book' by Ruth Hutchison, published by Harper and Brothers, New York. As is becoming a custom in regional recipe collections—and one to be cheered—this cook book combines folklore and cookery by including interesting and informative comments at the beginning of each chapter.

One American custom I am personally glad to see in every part of the country is the practice of serving fruit pies with ice cream. As for the fruit pies themselves the author of 'The Pennsylvania Dutch Cook Book' says that if they were invented in New England then it is at least apparent that the Pennsylvania Dutch have developed them to their last possibility. One of the good things about this cook book is its old-fashioned recipes. Take this one for instance for Huckleberry Pie. Nothing could be simpler — nor better. Bake the pie in the early morning, before the heat of the day descends, buy a package of ice cream before dinner and let this luscious combination beguile you in the cool of the evening.

Huckleberry Pie

Rich pastry 4 cups huckleberries, ½ cup sugar 1 teaspoon flour ½ teaspoon salt nutmeg

Line a pie dish with the pastry, pour in the berries and sugar, mixed. Sprinkle the flour and salt over the huckleberries and add a little nutmeg. Cut air holes in the top crust, seal carefully, and bake in 350° oven for about 40 minutes, or until crust is golden brown. Makes one 8-inch pie.

Rich Pastry

1 cup flour ½ teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon sugar 5 tablespoons butter 1 egg yolk, 1 tablespoon ice water.

Sift the flour into a bowl with the salt and sugar. Cut in the butter. Mix lightly. Stir in the egg yolk. Add water. Chill. Roll out lightly on a floured board. One tablespoon of lemon juice may be added if preferred, for fruit pies. Makes one 9-inch crust. Chill again before filling.

Of course just as delicious as pie-a-la-mode is cake-a-la-mode. If you can get your hands on some hickory nuts and really want to taste something good, then make the following cake and frosting from "The Pennsylvania Dutch Cook Book" and top it off with vanilla ice cream.

Shaker Nut Cake

½ cup butter 1 cup brown sugar, 2 beaten eggs, ½ cup water 1½ cups sifted flour, 1 heaping teaspoon baking powder, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 cup chopped hickory nuts.

Cream the butter and sugar. Beat the egg yolks and add. Sift the flour and baking powder and add alternately with the water. Beat the egg whites stiffly with the salt and fold in with the chopped nuts, which have been lightly dredged with flour. Bake in 8-inch loaf pan in 350° oven for about 40 minutes. Ice with hickory nut icing.

Hickory Nut Icing

1 cup brown sugar 1 cup sour cream, 1 cup chopped hickory nut meats, butter the size of a walnut.

Cook the sugar and cream together for a few minutes until it thickens. Add the butter and simmer until the mixture forms a soft ball if dropped into cold water. Remove from stove and cool. Beat until of a fudgelike consistency. Mix with the hickory nuts and spread quickly on the cake.

WALDO AUXILIARY MEETS

A feature of last week's meeting of the auxiliary to Porter-Snyder Post No. 666, American Legion, Waldo, was a personal shower for Mrs Carl Klingel. Mrs Leslie Augenstein presided for a business session. Refreshments were served by Mrs. DeMoss Buckingham, Mrs Pauline Buckingham and Mrs. Ada Good. The next meeting will be an outing at the Waldo memorial park.

Stoneridge Hanover Wins Both Dashes of Feature Race, The Kenton

6-Year-Old Bay Gelding Trots Mile in 2:09, Wins by 5 Lengths

By GEORGE SCOTT

Stoneridge Hanover dominated the Marion harness races last night at the fairgrounds by winning the Kenton Trophy and both the sixth and eighth races.

After taking the sixth race with ease the bay gelding trotted a mile in 2:09 to win the eighth race by five lengths. The six-year-old Stoneridge Hanover was cleverly driven by Jess Brickerhoff.

Dr J G McNamara president of the Matinee club presented the silver plaque Kenton Tropoy in the absence of the mayor of Kenton to the owner Medina Stables Inc of Medina. The Kenton Trophy race was sixth on a program of eight over a distance of 9 16 mile for 2l class trotters. Senator Grattan driven by Walt Dispanette placed second to Stoneridge Hanover in both races.

Marion Horse Wins

Hallelujah also driven by Walt Dispanette and owned by Charles D England of Marion came through in the last quarter of a mile contest with a strong finish to win the seventh race a 1 class pace for a purse of $1bo. Driver and owner Charlie Sims of Wakeman brought nine year-old Sir Mac-I-Capp home second in the race.

England had another winner in Which One who lead all the way to take the third race a two-year-old pace for a mile. England and Walt Dispanette who also drove Which One by the night's showing proved themselves to be well on the way to preseason predictions of a race-winning combination. Which One was a surprise winner having placed but third in the best of previous performances. Widow Bow owned by the Wall brothers of Richwood came in third in the race.

Dr McNamara's Highfaulutin placed fifth in the first race of a field of eight won by Betty Chief driven by Gabe Cartinal. Other Marion and near Marion owned horses who finished out of the money were Prolocutor, owned by C M Retherford of Marion, Lady Lee S owned by Carl Kuhn of Marion, Nancy K, owned by M Anderson of Kenton. Hes It owned by George Battles of Richwood, Pepper Flanegan, owned by Dr McNamara of Marion, Patchen Volo II, owned by Dr C G Smith of Marion and Gelmore owned by Thelma Coder of Cardington.

Comes from Behind

A crowd of about 4,200 saw Minnie Astra come from well behind the leaders and beat Scot mile with a final burst of speed. The brown filly seemed out of it until the last turn in the mile long trot. Driver Jack White got a good hand from the stands for his handling of the three-year old trotter.

Before the fourth race drivers John Brown was unseated as he was jogging Judy Dean past the grandstands. He was uninjured and Judy Dean went on to take third place in the contest.

The daily double paid $21.00 for winners Betty Chief in the first and Minnie Astra in the second race.

HAAS LOSES TO HARPSTER

Haas Sandwich Shop lost a tough one Sunday afternoon in the Tri City league going down before Harpster on the Harpster diamond 4 3. Martin, Rosseberry and Smeltzer took turns on the mound for Haas and Smart worked behind the plate. Haas will meet the Kenton Reds for their next league fray Sunday at Kenton.

Dodgers Hit Comeback Trail with Six Straight Wins

Win Over Braves Leaves Brooks In 5th Place, 6½ Games Behind

By The Associated Press

The unpredictable Brooklyn Dodgers were riding high today on the wings of a six-game winning streak—and threatening to catch the leaders before the month is out.

The latest Brooklyn victory march not only enhanced the Dodgers chances to retain their National league championship but may have the way out as manager.

It is no secret that Durocher must make a good showing this year or quit.

Meanwhile, the Dodgers find themselves in the best position they've been all season. Last night's 4-3 victory in 11 innings over the Boston Braves at Ebbets Field left them in fifth place, only a game behind the first division Giants. They trail the pace-setting Braves by six and a half games but are only four games behind in the important losing column.

Indians Maintain Lead

The Cleveland Indians maintained their slim 10-percentage point bulge on the Philadelphia Athletics in the American league race by trouncing the Chicago White Sox 10-2. The A's also won their game edging out the Yankees at New York 4-3. Bob Feller hurled his ninth victory for the Tribe pitching shutout ball after the first inning. The cellar-dwelling White Sox rapped Feller for two runs on three hits in the first inning.

Hank Majeski, a Yankee castoff, was the big gun for the A's. The hard-hitting third baseman walloped a home run and triple to drive in three runs against his former mates. Tommy Byrne was the victim.

Trailing 3-6, the Washington Senators suddenly came to life with a five-run rally in the top of the ninth to nip the Red Sox at Boston, 7-6. Manager Joe McCarthy who started with Boo Ferriss used five pitchers in a frantic attempt to halt the Nats.

Newhouser Blanks Browns

Hal Newhouser became the first Detroit pitcher to twirl a shutout this season when he blanked the St. Louis Browns 6-0 for his 12th victory. He has lost six.

Pittsburgh moved past St. Louis into second place in the National league by defeating the Cardinals 3-1. The Pirates scored the tie-breaking run in the top of the ninth when Wally Westlake followed Ralph Kiner's double with a run-producing single. The Pirates who boast a half length lead over the Cards now trail the Braves by 2½ games.

Larry Jansen limited the Philadelphia Phillies to two hits in pitching the New York Giants to a 7-0 triumph. He had a no-hitter until Richie Ashburn scratched an infield hit in the seventh. Johnny Mize collected four hits off Curt Simmons.

Hopping off to a 5-0 lead in the first inning the Reds went on to gain an easy 10-3 victory over the Cubs in Chicago. It was the only game played in the majors in daylight.

TRIBE OVERPOWERS WHITE SOX, 10-2

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, July 8—There's nothing wrong with the Cleveland Indians that can't be cured by playing the Chicago White Sox.

The Tribesmen demonstrated that last night as they overpowered the cellar occupants 10 to 2 and maintained their first place margin of 10 percentage points over the Philadelphia Athletics.

The triumph snapped a two-game Cleveland losing streak and also put Bob Feller back on the victory side of the ledger.

Feller survived a rocky first inning to coast to his ninth win against the same number of defeats.

Wild in the opening stanza Feller gave the Sox two runs on three hits and a pair of walks.

The first two Sox batters Don Kolloway and Dave Philley singled and then advanced on a sacrifice. Former Indian Pat Seerey walked to load the bases. Feller fanned Aaron Robinson but Taft Wright's single scored two runs.

The Tribe fireballer walked Luke Appling to fill the sacks again and Satchel Paige the veteran Negro hurler who signed with the Indians yesterday began to warm up as a possible replacement.

Paige soon sat down again for Feller nailed Cass Michaels on a fly and never was in trouble hereafter. He blanked the Sox with five hits after that first inning.

The Tribe sewed up the game with a six-run splurge in its half of the same inning.

Starter Earl Caldwell was able to retire only one batter before being replaced by Bob Gillespie. Dale Mitchell and Johnny Berardino singled. A single by Manager Lou Boudreau scored Mitchell and Joe Gordon's single plated Berardino. Ken Keltner walked and a fifth single, this one by Walt Judnich, scored Boudreau and Gordon.

Gillespie then took over and walked Jim Hegan to fill the bases. Feller then sent a high bounder to Gillespie, whose throw home forced Keltner. However catcher Robinson threw wildly to first in trying for a double play permitting Judnich and Hegan to trot home with the fifth and sixth runs of the inning.

Cleveland added two more in the fourth and single tallies in the sixth and seventh.

Southpaw Gene Bearden hurls against ex-Indian Al Gettel in the series finale today.

FIGHTS LAST NIGHT

By The Associated Press

NEW ORLEANS—Anthony Armour 138½, New Orleans knocked out Jack "Spider" Armstrong, 134, Toronto 2.

NEW YORK (Jamaica arena)—Carl Tallman, 154, Cliffside Park, N J, outpointed Tony Marino, 141½, New York 6.

SHANTY TOWN GIRLS WIN

The Shanty Town girls won both games of two played over the weekend downing North Lewisburg 16-0 there Sunday and dropping the Delaware Maids, 10-3, Monday. Jayne Adams scored the only four-bagger in the first contest and Christian Broyles and Miss Adams each poling home runs in the second. Next game for the Shantytowners will be played here against the Galion Merchants Thursday at 6 p m when the teams meet to playoff a 5-5 deadlock which resulted when a previous game between the teams was called because of rain.

Final Track Tryouts Begin Tomorrow

By The Associated Press

EVANSTON, Ill., July 8—Selection of the American Olympic track team completed on its ten firsts a long starts tomorrow on Northwestern university's Dyche stadium and concludes Saturday afternoon.

There was screaming confidence on all hands. With one notable exception the 200 athletes have come this far without serious injuries. Even Gil Dodds, best of the distance men who has a strained achilles tendon in his left leg, is rounding into shape.

Next Monday the track squad of about 65 men will assemble in New York for processing before the S S America sails on Wednesday with most of the American team. The exact number in track depends on how many spares are carried to run out the sprint and 1,600 meter relay teams.

LOSE PITCHER'S BATTLE

Marion's Independents member of the Tri City baseball league dropped an 11 inning pitchers duel to the Kenton Reds Sunday at Harding field. Neither pitcher issued a walk and Bob Lee Marion's hurler permitted only four hits. Rodenberger winning pitcher, gave up three hits. Kenton put two hits together in the first of the eleventh to score the only run of the game. The Independents will play next at Ridgeway Sunday.

"Plenty of Action Seen In Tonight's Card"

Marion wrestling fans are in for a lot of action tonight at the armory even including a championship match. The action will be different for when Billy Fox puts up his gold belt against Tommy Martindale the fans should see some of the best fast and clever action ever seen in Marion and when Eddie Williams tries to do the same thing to Irish McGee that he did to Jack Terry the action will be plenty rough. Both these matches are for ninety minutes or the best two out of three falls. Martindale has yet to loose a match in Marion and should give Fox a very good run for the belt. Williams is still nursing a grudge against the team of McGee and Terry and hopes to make it all even. Thursday First match starts at 8:30. Prices remain the same. Call 2746 after 6 p. m.—Adv.

TRAUTMAN ASKS MINORS TO HOLD OLYMPIC DAY

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., July 8—Minor league baseball fans will be asked Sunday to make up a $90,000 deficit in the U. S. Olympic team funds.

George M. Trautman, president of the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues (the minors) suggested yesterday that Sunday be designated "Olympic Day" at every minor league game and the fans "be given an opportunity to make voluntary contributions to the Olympic fund."

Trautman said he took the action after learning that the United States Olympic committee might be forced to leave at least 70 qualifiers at home because of lack of money.

Springfield Giants Regain Loop Lead with 9-6 Win Over Cubs

By BILL DIXON

The Marion Cubs, who handed the Ohio-Indiana league lead back to Springfield last night after taking it away Tuesday, meet the up and coming Portsmouth Athletics in a doubleheader at Lincoln park tonight with the first game scheduled to start at 8:30.

The A's, picked to end deep in the league's second division in a pre-season guessing contest of the loop's sportswriters, recently have made bad prognosticators out of the scribes by launching a winning drive that brought them from the second division right up into a hot battle for the lead.

Their 6-4 loss to Lima last night and Springfield's 9-6 win over the Cubs here left them in a tie with Muncie for second place in the league, one-half games behind the leading Giants.

Manager Frank Kristie of the Cubs will probably send Ray Peet and Frank Marchelli to the mound tonight in a bid to halt the A's in their drive. Peet, a righthander who has been plagued with wildness since notching up his last victory June 19, is due for a win. He has five to his credit, and is charged with seven losses. Marchelli, a lefty, has won five and lost four.

17 Cubs Strike Out

Springfield pitchers Bill Barnes and Joe Greco combined to strike out 17 Cubs and meanwhile the Giants were gifted to 14 bases on balls and a trio of costly Marion errors in walking off with the 9 to 6 verdict at Lincoln park last night.

Barnes held the Cubs in check, striking out the side in two innings, until the seventh, when the Bruins reached him for four hits and five runs, three of which came in on Stan King's 325 foot blaster over the left centerfield scoreboard. But Greco, who was waved in from the bull pen, put out the fire in a hurry, retiring the next three men up. Barnes, whose fast ball baffled 10 Cubs, was the winner. Greco whiffed seven striking out the side in the ninth.

Marion's starting pitcher, Bob Adkins, was charged with the loss—his fifth against one win. Adkins, whose forte has been control, at least in his last home appearance when he went 11 innings against the Muncie Reds giving up but nine hits, though losing, 3-2, was wild last night. He walked four Giants, gave up a single, and was the victim of an error in the first inning, being relieved by Mitchell Gegax with three runs in and the bases loaded.

Greeted with Single

Springfield's catcher Dan Matthews, who hit four for five driving in three runs, greeted lefty Gegax, who hadn't pitched since June 18, with a single to the right of the box that scored the inning's fourth run and a fifth came in on a wild pitch.

Gegax was in trouble in all of the five complete innings he pitched but got himself out of it admirably. Two runs, unearned, scored on him in the sixth on two hits and an error.

He was lifted for pinch hitter Nick Alivojvodic in the Cubs' half of the sixth, and Jim Auterson took over on the mound.

Auterson was relieved in the eighth by Jim Edgar leaving two men on base, both of whom scored.

The Marion hitting was concentrated in four men, Bill Boldue, Gene Bobbean, Manager Frank Kristie and King, all of whom hit safely twice. Boldue has hit safely in the last ten games, but a lengthier string of consecutive hitting was broken—that of Springfield's Pat Knox, who hadn't missed in 12 games. Knox didn't get much of a chance, however, as he was walked four times.

GLOSSARY OF TERMS FOR HARNESS RACING

For harness racing fans who have forgotten and those who are just learning to enjoy the sport the following terms, with their meanings may prove helpful.

They are taken from the 1948 Trotting and Pacing Guide published by the U. S. Trotting association and Webster's International, second edition, unabridged.

Trotter—Horse that moves with left front and right hind leg moving forward at approximately the same time in a high-stepping straight ahead gait.

Pacer—Horse that moves with a swaying gait swinging the right front and right hind legs forward at the same time while the horse's weight is shifted to the left legs.

Hopples — Leather straps encircling the front and hind legs of a pacer to keep both legs on a side moving in unison.

Free-legged Pacer — A pacer that races without hopples. All horses have the ability to trot but natural pacers are rare. Hopples are generally necessary to train a horse to pace.

Maiden—Horse that has never won a heat or race at the gait being raced.

Standardbred—Pure bred trotting or pacing horses.

Breaking—When a horse leaves his gait of pacing or trotting and "breaks" into a gallop. The driver must immediately pull him back to his gait.

Rating — Maintaining an even rate of speed and timing finishing rush. Unlike running horses which run the first quarter fastest, harness horses usually run the finishing quarter in the fastest time.

Gelding — A castrated male horse.

Bay—Reddish brown color.

Roan—Yellowish red with gray or white thickly interspersed.

Mare—A female horse.

Filly—A female foal or colt a young mare.

Stallion — A male horse not castrated.

Class Race — Race open to horses eligible to a certain class according to money winnings.

Conditioned Race—With specific conditions such as non-winners at the meeting or non-winners of a certain amount of money in the past year. A horse's time record can no longer be used to condition harness races.

Overnight Event — Race for which entries closed 48 hours or less before the race.

Stake — Race in which all nominating and starting fees are added to the purse.

FIRST IN FEATURE

"Horse the Horse," Jim Boyd's hot rod racer, driven by Steve Gilliland, came home the winner in the half-mile feature race at Norwalk July 4, and although mechanical trouble developed, placed third in the first 10-lap race, third in the semi-feature and fifth in the main feature race. Entered in the stock car races at Bares July 5, the "Horse" took second place in the fourth race.

Sports Shorts

By BILL DIXON
Star Sports Editor

MARION Cub fans are happy to see that their ball club is showing more hustle, a quality that lay dormant under the reign of Zeke Bonura. Not only ran hustle win ball games, but it makes them a lot more interesting. The club is reflecting the spirit of their new manager Frank Kristie, whose aggressiveness as well as fine first base is keenly appreciated by the fans. . . Kristie, a P-47 pilot in the war, was one GI who could say "Oh my aching back" and mean it. His back here was fractured in a plane crash. Frank has two highly skilled hobbies — photography and building model airplanes. He takes colored pictures with an expensive camera and sometimes works a year on an airplane model. . . He brought his own uniform with him to Marion, knowing that the club probably wouldn't have one. The Springfield Giants have his favorite number—13—in stock. It didn't.

. . . WILSON DUBBERKE, who was promoted from Class C Clinton, Iowa Cubs to the Decatur, Ill., Cubs of the Class B Three I league Sunday has one of baseball's most talked about young stars on his second staff. That's George (Zeke) Zoetterman, the southpaw pitching star who was signed by the Chicago White Sox while still in high school and was summarily declared a free agent by Happy Chandler because the Sox violated the high school rule. Not only did the White Sox lose him but they were fined $500 to boot and were nearly suspended from baseball for threatening to ignore the fine. Manager-Catcher Burbrink left his Clinton Cubs well out front in the Central association. He replaces Red Lucas at the helm of the Decatur club. Lucas will become a scout.

LIMA IS ONE ball club in the Ohio-Indiana league that deserves the descriptive adjective "hard-luck" Terrors. Their 6 to 5 loss at the Cubs here Monday night was the 18th they've lost by one run. It was the seventh extra-inning game they've dropped. The Springfield Giants are going to run into another kind of tough luck this weekend. They meet Lima in doubleheaders tonight and tomorrow, play a single game Saturday, then another doubleheader Sunday. Seven games in four days, and only seven pitchers on the staff. . . All the ball clubs in the league, however, run into that situation sooner or later, being limited to 17 players. The major leagues, even, sometimes have that trouble.

Olympic Swimming Trials Start Today

By The Associated Press

DETROIT, July 8—The first of more than 400 candidates for 48 places on the United States Olympic swimming teams hit the water in Kruge park's trim pools today for initial tests in four-day trials.

Prime interest in the first day's competition centered on the men's 100 meter free style.

Wally Ris, University of Iowa's crack sprinter, looomed as the man to beat through the field included such top-flight candidates as national champion Bill Smith, former Ohio State university ace competing with 11 swimmers representing Hawaii.

U. S GIRDLES BRAZILIANS

By The United Press

NEW YORK — A shipment of 3 117 girdles has been flown to Rio de Janeiro Some of Chicago's finest girdles which, if stretched just one way would reach nine-tenths of a mile, they went out on Pan American's Clipper Charmer, guaranteed to do their bit to keep things in shape below the equator The girdles weighed a total of 1,647 pounds.

The Klondike is not in Alaska, as most people believe, but in northwestern Canada.

POLICE, FIREMEN RAISE PROPOSED

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS O July 8—Police and firemen here may get a 23 per cent wage increase but if they do department officials said today recent resignation threats won't be the reason for it.

Police Chief Charles M Barry and Fire Chief Walter O Strickfaden recommended the 23 per cent figure to Mayor James A. Rhodes yesterday The mayor took the plan under advisement

Last month 178 police and firemen said they would submit resignations, effective July 1, unless granted a $50 monthly pay boost and uniform allowances City councilmen subsequently approved the uniform allowance The 178 withdrew their resignation threat last week

The proposed increase would raise the pay of first-year men from $266.50 a month to $334
